Social Work

University of Central Florida Libraries

Hello – As the new semester begins, there are many resources and services available to you through the John C. Hitt Library. In the space below, I will be alerting you to what would be of interest to the School of Social Work. hal.

Books and Videos

Are you interested in strengthening the library collection in your subject area? Are there areas in the study of Social Work you would like to see expanded? Do not hesitate and contact hal, the library liaison to the School of Social Work. Your input is always appreciated and wanted.

Special Resources –UCF Apps

All UCF faculty and students now have access to many of the software applications required for coursework, at no additional out-of-pocket cost!

Students can use critical Windows applications anytime (24/7), anywhere (on or off campus), on just about any device they own!

The current application offerings are:

- AMOS
- ArcGIS
- JMP Pro
- Microsoft Excel
- Microsoft PowerPoint
- Microsoft Publisher
- Microsoft Word
- Origin
- SAS Base
- SAS Enterprise Guide
- SPSS

More applications will be added as they become available.
Visit http://apps.ucf.edu to watch an introductory video, get help and tutorials on how to use UCF Apps, submit feedback, and request applications.

UCF Apps is a pilot project funded by the student technology fee and supported by contributions from UCF colleges and divisions.

UCF Mobile – Allows you to connect to UCF resources on-the-go using either Android, iPhone & iPod Touch, and iPad devices. Pretty amazing resource.
