

1663-04-01

James Harrison, Judge Thomas Wild, [April 1663]

James Harrison

PRINT Identifier: 15719

Find similar works at: <https://stars.library.ucf.edu/printmigrationnetwork-pemberton>
University of Central Florida Libraries <http://library.ucf.edu>

This Correspondence is brought to you for free and open access by the Quaker Correspondence at STARS. It has been accepted for inclusion in Pemberton Correspondence by an authorized administrator of STARS. For more information, please contact STARS@ucf.edu.

Citation

James Harrison, Worcester Castle; Worcester, Worcestershire, England, to Judge Thomas Wild, n.p., 1663-04, vol. 1, pg. 4, Pemberton Family Papers, 1641-1880, 0484A, Historical Society of Pennsylvania, Philadelphia, PRINT, 15719, <https://stars.library.ucf.edu/printmigrationnetwork-pemberton/2/>.

This Correspondence is brought to you for free and open access by the Quaker Correspondence at STARS. It has been accepted for inclusion in Pemberton Correspondence by an authorized administrator of STARS. For more information, please contact STARS@ucf.edu.

Thomas wild

these are to lett thescond stand that when I had made ready to send for a cartifiratt the indox^r refused to sell y^e moringe haue my horse unless he had an ord^r from thee, for thou not being in towne I could not finde
I heard that one Mr. How hath conuitt the doore & taken him away with he ought not to adone for I desire to heare from thee whether thou gaue any such ord^r & though I myselfe be detained in prison, heare for at hand I desire will rom for I would thou would not lett me be robed or my horse plunderd or rather stolen from mee for such doings as I haue mett with howe in the Citie if my horse & saddle & cloath be taken away I best prison^r is such as I see mett with before now it is vnknewen of irulety it makes moderate people to wonder that aman cannot rom to the Citie of westm^r your going to stay but one night, I would not eat any mans bread for ought but be cast in prison, and haue his horse taken from him, for I would haue my horse restored that I who haue most right may delyue of him for may thou doo well this from one

70
that loue marrye
truth & rightynesse & the soules of all men for I am a prisoner
by theore
J. H.

James Francis on Worcester Jail

Judge Wild

1863?