these are to lett thescond stand that when I had made ready to send for a cartifiratt the indox<sup>r</sup> refused to sell y<sup>e</sup> moringe haue my horse unless he had an ord<sup>r</sup> from thee, for thou not being in towne I could not finde I heard that one Mr. How hath conuitt the doore & taken him away with he ought not to adone for I desire to heare from thee whether thou gaue any such ord<sup>r</sup> & though I myselfe be detained in prison, heare for at hand I desire will rom for I would thou would not lett me be robed or my horse plunderd or rather stolen from mee for fith things as I haue mett with howe in the Citie if my horse & saddle & cloath be taken away I best prison<sup>r</sup> is such as I see mett with before now it is vnknewe of irulety it makes moderate people to wonder that aman cannot rom to the Citie of westm<sup>r</sup> your going to stay but one night, I would not eat any mans bread for ought but be cast in prison, and haue his horse taken from him, for I would haue my horse restored that I who haue most right may delyue of him for may thou doo well this from one

70
that loue marrye
truth & rightynesse
& the good of all men for I am a prisoner
