I dearly beloved in <sup>our</sup> Lord, Iesus Christ, these may satisfie these, & I have requir'd thy line, & it is done as thou hast said, Likewise these may satisfie thee, if I am well every way, blessed be if god of all our mercies, who with his kin--ing presence goes along with all them y<sup>e</sup> fear him, & love him, I dare love I am very glad to hear y<sup>e</sup> all is well with you, & y<sup>e</sup> your business goes on well, & chiefly be cause it will be satisfaction, & reward to thee, which if I which my soul earnestly desires, when you have over shot your busi-ness, tell them y<sup>e</sup> desire to see us, have liberty, my inter-love is to thee, & my only daughter with all my servants & more especially those y<sup>e</sup> love y<sup>e</sup> best, his truth, & righteous-ness, thus in y<sup>e</sup> endless love abounding unto you all I dare to write but remaine thy loving husband J. H.
