love y^e is in me & in it most plentifully enjoy thee, notwithstanding when opportunity is, I shall joyfully go to thee home & when thou com-may be, y^e Edward may com with thee & I suppose Phoebe wilbe willing to com, I would have afoole find & som offall leather in the wide bag y^e may put it, with as many patterns as can be found =dd for I have bought, three pieces, for upper leather if thou have it, thou may bring me 20 - or 40 shil=ings, & it may be Edward may be with me, for I woul have som thread, it may be well y^e thou have som company other to help home with y^e horse or other drudge, if thou should stay awhile in the City and in y^e meantime doo not overcharge thy selfe with labour, for being glad to hear from thee I rest in much more health, then when I parted with thee & in deere love to thee Phoebe, & all friends
