The Joseph C. Andrews Mentoring Breakfast

Joseph C. Andrews (1939-2002) was a faithful UCF employee for 14 years. At his passing he held the position of Head of UCF Library Collection Management Department, in the Information Technologies and Resources Division.

The Black Faculty and Staff Association suffered a deep loss in the passing of Mr. Joseph C. Andrews. Joseph was a faithful and dependable member of this organization and held the office of Co-President 2001-2002. He was always on the alert to help humanity, and his influence will long be felt by those who were encouraged, helped, and cheered by his friendship and counsel.

Joseph was dedicated to making UCF a welcoming and successful environment for all students in general and multicultural students in particular. His actions embodied the spirit of this mentoring breakfast. Every year since its inception, Joseph purchased numerous breakfast tickets for students, out of his own pocket.

In his honor, the BFSA mentoring breakfast is henceforth named the Joseph C. Andrews Mentoring Breakfast.

"Tee" Collins

Professor Elmore "Tee" Collins taught for nine years in the UCF Animation Program until his untimely death in 2000. He was the first African American to establish his own animation studio in New York. He is probably best known for having done much of the animation for the early Sesame Street Programs during the 1960's. It is with great pleasure that the Black Faculty and Staff Association recognizes "Tee" Collins for his contributions and outstanding service to UCF and the Central Florida community by awarding two students with the annual "Tee" Collins scholarship.
