My very Dear love is unto thee, & my loving wife to my mother & likewise to Lodgov & Idea with all the friends of god, & the truth. These may partly see thee, if I am every way well, as I hope thou art. I desire thee not to over charge thy selfe either with over meditation or farming mind, or with labour, so as to prejudice thy health. Edward Singard is very willing to comp. hath promised to god, his best, so I would have R-gor to worke of a frame with him, for if he will doe as faith, he will finish & sew enough with rubbing out, & wa-ring stirring robes, but let Rodg? look to him & con-sider if he will do anything rather than some kith or -kins. I have not yett out the Breton's book, & have not opposit to worke much my selfe by reason of the un--readiness of things, & some time being taken offe for the blessed Union of our g. & I rest well. I am thy
