The regular Chamber of Commerce meeting Tuesday, February 14th, will be devoted to the discussion of taxation. Senator Walter W. Rose, Representatives J. J. Dickinson and Fred C. Ward will be the principal speakers, and will answer any questions asked pertaining to their view on taxation. Everyone is invited to attend Luncheon will be served at 12:15. If you do not care to eat you are welcome to come and hear the program.

Chamber of Commerce Card Party—Thursday
2:30 P. M.

Visitors Club of Orlando—Tuesday, City Auditorium, 7:30 P. M.

All visitors are welcome to Sunshine Park where Bowling, Shuffleboard, Roque, Cards, Horseshoe Pitching and other games are played daily.

All visitors are requested to register at the Chamber of Commerce so that their friends may locate them.

State Club Meetings

Ohio—Monday, C. of C. Bldg., 8 P. M.

Michigan—Wednesday (2nd and 4th) C. of New England—Wednesday (1st and 3rd) C. of C. Bldg., 8 P. M.

New York, Thursday, C. of C. Bldg., 8 P. M.

Pennsylvania—Friday, C. of C. Bldg., 8 P. M.

Band Concert

Band Concert, Sunday, Eola Park—2:30 P. M.

BOXING—Monday, 8:15 P. M., Court Street arena, auspices American Legion.

WRESTLING—Wednesday, 8 P. M., Court Street arena, auspices American Legion.

We trust officials of the wrestling matches in Orlando will confine the antics of the participants to the rules of the game in the future. The Legion has given us some very clever exhibitions in the past and we are assured that this week's card will be according to Hoyle. Orlando will support clean sport but not a repetition of last week's fiasco.

BY
HARRY E. FITZGERALD

Celebrated Sports Writer
A Weekly Feature of the GREETER

There is a peculiar "something" in the make-up of mortals that makes them want to flee in times of stress, ill-health or unpleasant surroundings. Youth, crossed in love, wants to "go away"; cold weather makes folks dream of flowers, purling brooks and gleaming lakes where shadows fall bewitchingly o'er "fishin' holes" and the golden sheen of oranges peep from amid leaves of glossy green. The Indians, the very first Americans, moved with the seasons. They followed the sunshine and balmy air and green growing things. All mankind is inclined toward a change at times and that change invariably trends toward places where the great outdoors is at its best—where play and sports prevail.

Florida is and will ever continue to be the winter playground of the nation. In comparison with any other place there is just a little more sparkle to the sunshine, more blue in the sky, more gold in the sunsets, and a little more fascination in its wild places. Personal contact with its forests, lakes and streams, its groves and its health-giving climate has lured tourists from all parts of the wide world year after year for the past five decades—fifty years—and more.

It is only natural to assume that men and women are happier in such an environment. Out in the open they can not resist the urge to PLAY. It does not necessarily require "red-blood" in order to have a taste for outdoor life. People play in Florida who have never played anywhere else. This indicates the desire to play comes upon them AFTER they have arrived. A plausible reason is that Florida's great outdoors fairly coaxes them to become a part of it all. Beautiful scenes have surely a lure that inclines one to a closer acquaintance with them, urges the stranger to become a part of the joys that beckon.

I have known northern visitors who became expert anglers in a single season, yet admitted that before coming to Florida they had never wet-a-line nor cast-a-lure; others who saw their first bird "shot-on-the-wing" fall on Florida soil and before the season's close they were stalking the wary wild turkey or equally elusive deer and keeping pace with the best efforts of the natives who have hunted since childhood. Just cases of grownups learning to PLAY and LIKING IT!

May the numbers of those who have found health and recreation in Florida's God-given sports ever increase and may they spread the gospel to every nook and corner of the earth. Mother Nature never intended her wonderful gifts for the favored few and it's a duty we owe to all—the duty of telling the world what Florida has to offer and welcoming those who respond to our invitation to come and share our blessings.

Writing something about Sharkey's Restaurant each week would appear to be quite an easy task, but those who dine there often know there is so much to tell that volumes could be written. This week we want to remind you that Sharkey is noted for the finest coffee not only in Orlando but in the State. That is why most every mail brings orders for a can of Sharkey's special roasted Java. Next time you are "on the avenue", drop into Sharkey's and order a pot of coffee—it's quite the thing to do.

Speaknig of an optimist, it will do you good to drop in and chin with Evans Crump, the jeweler. Crump finds time to carry on experiments with his many patent ideas which he claims is a better hobby than fishing and playing golf.

You are invited to drop by Mack's Wolverine Fruit Stand on North Orange at Cheney and sample his delicious fruit—and is it good!

"All things come out in the wash", it has remained for F. Austin Swartout to come down from Washington, D. C. and expose J. N. Wigfall's middle name, a mystery of many years. Guess? Give up? Well get set—it's J. Nowell

Why

FOR the thousands of people who come to Orlando and Winter Park either as vacationists, prospective residents, as well as for our round citizens this magazine is published.

Many of Orlando's achievements, her class educational, cultural, civic and industrial advantages; as well as her amusement and entertainment features are more or less unknown or overlooked.

The mission of "The Greeter" is to acquaint the visitor and the busy Orlandian with what is happening in Central Florida—"Where to go—what to see—how to get there—and what to do."

Through "The Greeter" these features of City Beautiful and the County Bountiful better known and more widely appreciated.

At last the place you have been looking for. It has been a long time since I have seen as lovely clothes as the Helen Purdue Shop carries, this Shop was formally located in Daytona for many years. Gowns and hats so exquisite they are irresistible, just the shop central Florida women have been waiting for. Expert designers and makers of hats. Located at 342 E. Winter Park Ave., Winter Park.

Charleen's Tea House is owned and managed by Charleen J. Baker of the famous Buttercup Hill Tea Room, Lunenburg, Mass., and all of her friends and patrons of New England will be glad to know that she is serving the same food in Florida for which she has built up such a tremendous business at Buttercup Hill. #### going places

SANITARIUM DRIVE—Just off North Orange on Rollins Avenue. You will enjoy a drive through the campus of the Florida Sanitarium. Its beauty is enriched by the tall mossy pines which overshadow the lake front vista. Many visitors enjoy this retreat and have always found themselves welcome.

ORLANDO COUNTRY CLUB—Eighteen-hole golf course (par 70), tennis, clear water bathing, attractive, commodious club-house. The rendezvous of the social set. Only one and a half miles from the center of the downtown district.

BREWER ESTATE—Country home of E. H. Brewster (deceased), known as "The Palms." The natural beauty of the tropical jungle enhanced by the art and skill of the landscape gardener. Here may be seen in profusion almost every variety of flower, fern, shrub, plant and tree grown in Florida. At Winter Park.

DUBSDREAD COUNTRY CLUB—With its sporty 18-hole golf course, is conceded to be one of the finest course within the State.

ROCK SPRINGS—True to its name. Located in Kelly Park, a natural beauty spot of 300 acres, the gift of Dr. Howard A. Kelly, of Baltimore, to the Orange County Park System. Six miles north of Apopka.

MUNICIPAL AIRPORT—Two miles from the business district of Orlando, on the shores of Lake Underhill, offering land and water for alighting. East on Washington, Central or South street.

Give some work to all, not all to some.

A short work-week is better than none.

winter park news - rollins college notes

Monday afternoon, Feb. 13 at 3:30, Dr. Evelyn Newman of the Rollins College Faculty will give the fifth in a series of lectures at the All Saint's Parish House in Winter Park. She will review at this time some of the most recent contemporary novels, including The Fountain by Charles Morgan, Simple Man, by Joseph Roth, and others.

Of outstanding interest musically is the Organ Vesper program presented by Hereman F. Siewert in the Knowles Memorial Chapel this same afternoon at 5:30. This program will commemorate the passing of Richard Wagner fifty years ago in Venice. Soloists from the Conservatory will accompany Mr. Siewert. Music will include numbers from Wagner's operas.

At four o'clock of Friday afternoon, Feb. 17, the finals of the Florida State History Contest sponsored by Irving Bacheller and Rollins College, will be held at Mr. Bacheller's residence, "Gate O' Isles", as one of the features of the exercises observing the 48 Anniversary of Rollins College. Among those who will be present are Dr. Albert Shaw, Irving Bacheller, and A. J. Hanna.
