dear and well beloved freind [friend] and Brother, whom the Lord hath [has] honnored [honored], and Crowned in his eterniall [eternal] power, and who shall take it from thee [you], blessed be his name for ever [forever], my Life is bound up with thee [you], and Love flowes [flows] unto thee [you], and I am knitt [knit] unto thee [you], [crossed out: illegible] measureably [measurably], in that Life and followshipe [fellowship] of the gospell [gospel], of peace which the Lord hath [has] mead [made] us par takers [partakers] of in which our unity stands, and we are fellow [feelers?] of one another, and in the [etremes?] [extremes] of my fathers [father's] Love, I dearly Imbrace [embrace] thee [you], and Cord ially [cordially] salut [salute] thee [you], thine [yours] I Rcd [received] and was verie [very] glad to heare [hear] of thy [your] deare [dear] wife Recoverie [recovery], whom I dearely [dearly] Love, the Lord prelong [prolong] her dayes [days] saith [says] my soule [soul], and all soe [also] was glad to heare [hear] of thy [your] good searvies [service/services] at Liber pool [Liverpool], a mongest [amongst] freinds [friends], things
here are prety [pretty] quiat [quiet], and we have had a blessed heavenly [heavenly] meeting for six dayes [days] now together [together] and it is not yeat [yet] ended, the Lords [Lord's] power has gone over all, I doe [do] not know that I ever soye [saw] such a multuites [multitudes] of people, Last first day it was expected that all over meetings would abeene [have been] brocken [broken] up G: ff: [George Fox] and w: p: [William Penn] and I was [were] at gracons [Graysons] street, when theire [there] was said to be neare [near] 4 thoushand [thousand] people and not a tongue Lift up against us, Roger Haydc [Roger Haydock] was at Daven shire [Devonshire] hous [house], and offecers [officers] take him out of the meeting and Lete [let] him goe [go], and at the Savoye [Savoy] the [they] take some names, and that was all, and everie [every] day since we have had meetings quiat [quiet], and the Lord is with, and who shall pre vaile [prevail] against us, magified [magnified] bee [be] his power for ever [forever] more, Roger Haydock and I was [were] with william penn [William Penn] this morning, and hee [he] Read thy [your] Letter, and gaive [gave] it to mee [me] againe [again], to give to phillep foard [Philip Ford], and said if theire [there] weire [were] any place yeat [yet] Left p: p: [Phineas Pemberton] should have a place, and if he Came to him hee [he] should not want a place, he was in hast [haste] goeing [going] to winsworth, and desired us to Come to him againe [again] when he Cam [came] home againe [again] and this day I have beene [been] with philep foard [Philip Ford] and given him the Letter, and he has promesed [promised] that phinehas [Phineas Pemberton] shall have a place, and that his place should be the stoor keeper [storekeeper], and will. Gibson [William Gibson] to him on ~~th~~ his account, and also [also] to James Claypoull [James Claypoole] that he should have a place, I have bought him, a grace of buttons of the best I can get the prise [price] is five shillings six pence the [they] will Com [come] in Robert Haydockes [Robert Haydock's] goods, I have not beene [been] with george green, as yet, I may take an oportunity [opportunity] on the second day and give him account, and thus fear [far] I have answered your Letters, and what fouthier [further] I Can give mee [me] [my] account, I am will ing [willing] to serve my freinds [friends], in what I can, I thinke [think] to stay in town till [until] the Later end of the next weicke [week], and then goe [go] towards Collchester [Colchester], it may be I goe [go] over to Holland I doe [do] not here [hear] of any except Tho: Green [Thomas Green] soe [so] I have not much time if I goe [go] thaire [their] yearlie [yearly] meeting begins [begins] on the forth [fourth] day Com [come] two weicke [weeks], Let mee [me] heare [hear] from you, direct to Stephen Crisp at Collchester [Colchester] if not before, soe [so] with my Love to you all in the seed that blessed for ever [forever], I remaine [remain]
