

1670-05-11

Phineas Pemberton, Ralph Pemberton, May 11, 1670

Phineas Pemberton

PRINT Identifier: 15742

 Part of the Archival Science Commons, and the History Commons

Find similar works at: <https://stars.library.ucf.edu/printmigrationnetwork-pemberton>

University of Central Florida Libraries <http://library.ucf.edu>

This Correspondence is brought to you for free and open access by the Quaker Correspondence at STARS. It has been accepted for inclusion in Pemberton Correspondence by an authorized administrator of STARS. For more information, please contact STARS@ucf.edu.

Citation

Phineas Pemberton, Lancaster Castle; Lancaster, Lancashire, England, to Ralph Pemberton, n.p., 1670-05-11, vol. 1, pg. 29, Pemberton Family Papers, 1641-1880, 0484A, Historical Society of Pennsylvania, Philadelphia, PRINT, 15742, <https://stars.library.ucf.edu/printmigrationnetwork-pemberton/14/>.

This Correspondence is brought to you for free and open access by the Quaker Correspondence at STARS. It has been accepted for inclusion in Pemberton Correspondence by an authorized administrator of STARS. For more information, please contact STARS@ucf.edu.

La: far

my Duty to you remembered this is to acquaint you that I am in good health & have gotten a plaide in the Castle
& a bed & I hope now I shall do well & at present
I do not understand by word or any of us shall have our liberty ^{to come home} for the are something harsh & cruel at present & have given us a charge to none to go to any meeting in the town but we intend to have our meeting in the castle for family. I am a margret: for are both prisoners
I have here sent you a copy which by the way cometh us to prison which I wait at present but I could not send it away; there is a sessions to be kept the 10th day of this month & whether the will let do any thing with us then or no I can not tell the sessions was dismissed for want of justices or else it should have been the 1st Tuesday after Easter do with my dear love to all & the rest of friends in general
I rest your dutyful son

La: castle
may 11 Day
- 1670

- phine: pemberton

[Faint, illegible handwriting on aged paper]

A close-up photograph of a heavily worn, brown leather book cover. The leather is cracked and discolored, with some faint, illegible markings visible. A diagonal crease runs across the center.

[Faint, illegible handwriting]

Handwritten text, likely bleed-through from the reverse side of the page. The text is illegible due to fading and the texture of the paper.

The above is a list of the names of the persons who have been admitted to the membership of the Society
 since the last meeting.

Handwritten text, likely bleed-through from the reverse side of the page. The text is illegible due to fading and the texture of the paper.

Handwritten text on aged paper, likely a manuscript page. The text is written in a cursive script and is mostly illegible due to fading and damage. Visible fragments include:

... of ...
...
...
...
...
...
...
...

1000

The above is a list of the names of the persons who have been admitted to the membership of the Society since the last meeting.

11

Letter from Phineas P. to his father showing who was in prison with him. 29

To da.

My duty to you remembered. This is to acquaint you y^t I am in good health & have gotten a place in y^e castle & a bed & I hope we shall do well, & at present I do not understand y^t we or any of us shall have our liberty to com home for they ~~are~~ are some thing harsh & cruel at present & hath given us a charge y^t none do go to any meeting in the towne but we intend to have our meeting in the castal for ~~for~~ Francis Hun & margret, fell out both prisoners. I have here sent you a copy where by they comitt us to prison which I wist at Preston but I could not send it away; there is a sessions to be kept the 10th day of this month & whether they will do anything with us then or no I can not tell. The sessions was dismissed for want of justises or ells it should have bene the ^{second} tuesday after easter so with my deare love to you & the rest of friends in general I Rest
Your dutifull son Phineas Pemberlon

To: castel
may ye 1 day
1670

To Phineas Pemberlon
In Pensylvania

Deare ffrd: Phineas Pemberlon

In that love wherein the Lord hath been pleased to extend of his mercy unto my soule & bodye (blessed be his name) and hereby in some measure to present me upon mee ffor to love him againe in a measure of this ~~love~~ and thou often brought up in my remembrance, & were unto mee though our bodyes far separated, and though at tyme of my acquaintance with thee was in my minority when thou wast in my fathers ffamilye, yett thy truthlike behaviour & ffidelity hath

