The MLIS Information Day 2005 was a terrific day of fun, information and fellowship. We wish to thank the two speakers, Mel Pace and Dorothy Mays, for their entertaining and informative sessions. Also, our gratitude to the panelists and volunteers that helped to make this event a success. Finally, thank you, our guests for joining us. We sincerely hope that you enjoyed this event. Please take a moment and complete the evaluation form. Your suggestions to improve our event are greatly appreciated.

Tuesday, May 5, 2005

Dorothy Mays, Head of Public Services at Olin Library, Rollins College

Dorothy Mays will be speaking on how to present yourself professionally as you navigate the job search and interview process. Ms. Mays has been at Rollins College since 2001. She has an MA in History from the University of Virginia, and an MLS from Indiana University. She formerly worked as a reference librarian at Wright State University, in Dayton, OH and at Ohio State University in Columbus OH. Her upcoming reference book, Women in Early America, will be published by ABC-CLIO in 2005.

Mel Pace, Associate Dean of the School of Library and Information Science, USF

Mel Pace will be speaking about the duties in the "typical" librarian job. Mr. Pace has been the Associate Dean of the School of Library and Information Science at USF for the past four years. His duties include teaching undergraduate and graduate level courses and writing grants. He has also been involved with several academic projects in South America. Prior to joining the faculty at the USF, Mr. Pace taught elementary school and worked in sales and marketing for many years.
