After my love to that remembered by those thou may understand yt we are all well & the family love is generally to thee & many inquire after thee and when thou wilt com home which I write also desire thou might som tyme look to & shew for a month or five weeks for I have desired to goe to London to look after my business there, thou might work with Mary Hunter, his Brother hath sent som good from London for me to dispose for him, & his maister also hath sent to me to buy him 2 year of fustian, so when I had dur I ordered my own business & thou write som I want to goe up they have find & strayed of several friends for every meeting I was at Congleton y day when was John Cooke his wife & J. Glub we were visit ed there by J. major & there but I have not heard of any thing is don at yett concerning it all is quiet heard, but what I have said I hear & they are very bad about mid-winter & Sholby & Chester but I heard J. Shakerley said at som meeting of thiers, if they needed not to goe out for every meeting one a quarter might serve, now I informed I reported them twice a week, I was the oration for with my love to m. f. & rest of thy fellow responders & friends in love with my wife & child thou also ed. Thomas & it to thee I have writ several letters from thee the ffarmers & I and Brooth love it to thee thou must remember what to Francis dur for with thy friends I desire to be thee heard if it were for order
