And while we are on the subject of new and unusual places, first on our list comes the Mandarin Club now open and giving to Orlando a touch of the metropolitan. We suggest it as a pleasant retreat for these hot evenings and many claim it to be the coolest spot in town.

More and more people every day are turning to Orange City Water, and if you will only call 5612 G. W. Briggs, distributor, will be glad to supply you with a trial bottle of the famously pure, and exceptionally palatable water. Don't procrastinate. Reach for your phone now!

Yes sir, we don't mean maybe. The Flamingo leading Spanish restaurant and night club, just one-half mile east of the city limits on the Cheney Highway, extends to you a cordial invitation to drive out tonight and the staff of courteous attendants will do everything in their power to guarantee you an enjoyable evening, and there is no cover charge—simply pay for what you eat and drink.

A one stop body service is now available at the new Housley Auto Body Co., located at 435 North Garland (corner of Alexander Place) Upholstering - Metal - Wood or Refinishing work or everything it takes to put your car or wreck back "in the pink of condition" is offered at this new shop operated by Mr. L. E. Housley, identified with the Automotive industry for many years. Drop by today, don't delay having that work done, you'll find the price is right.

Support the baseball team. The boys that are playing, as well as the public spirited officials who are doing a good piece of work to keep alive interest in the popular game, deserve your cooperation. Go out to root for the boys when they play again. We guarantee a good game.

In N. Burman is doing double duty now that Johnnie Wigfall of the Orlando Steam Laundry is vacationing.

It is most unusual that we ever unreservedly recommend anything but here is a real tip, if you know real values drop in Frances Slaters this week and take advantage of her summer closing sale. Honest to goodness reductions of from 25 to 50% and even less on many items have been made. Slater's is closing for the summer soon and The Greeter wishes Frances Slater a happy and prosperous summer and urges her to return early in the fall.

If you are one of the many who are keeping their food budget down to one dollar a day, we suggest that you try breakfast, lunch, and dinner at William's Restaurant at 59 N. Orange. William Phios requests you to eat with him once and is confident that you will be a steady customer from then on.

The real news to hundreds of would-be shies and staid business men of the city, as well as all who pride themselves on their appearance is the fact that Frank Stender is now associated and located at J. Q. Bennett's Central Barber Shop at 16 W. Central. Frank, the tall and ever-smiling tonsorial artist, whose customers and hearty booster both silently and outwardly proclaim his efficiency, is perhaps the best-known barber in the city. He was a shining light at Winkler's North Orange Avenue Barber Shop for the past two years and prior to that worked at the San Juan Barber Shop for five years. To all his old customers calling on Frank at 16 W. Central this week he is showing his appreciation with a free tonic.

Draft beer is still being looked forward to by the patrons of the famous three-in-one stop at 17 N. Orange Avenue, and Charlie's Place assures their friends that it won't be long now, and in the meantime all of the favorite brands of bottled beer are vying for honors at the minierature bar next to the post-office.

The city council safety committee approved a traffic regulation providing: "No operator of a motor vehicle shall have either arm around another person while the vehicle is in motion; nor shall another person have either arm around the operator."

Then it went a step farther and approved a regulation making it illegal for any person, "adult or minor" to sit on the lap of any automobile driver while the vehicle is in motion. — Cleveland Press.

SPORTS & RECREATION NEWS

Some of the best diamondball games of the year are on the schedule for this weeks play. The feature games being the opening of the second half of the class A league on Tuesday and Friday night and the Junior Chamber of Commerce benefit game Wednesday night.

In the Civic Club league on Monday the leadership of the league will also be at stake as the American Legion meets the University Club in this game.

The outstanding game of the week is the Jr. Chamber of Commerce on Wednesday night when two picked Class A teams the Blues and the Whites will meet at 8:00.

The Blues have been chosen by the fans from the Poinsettia and Sentinel-Star team and the Whites have been chosen from the Jackson and Datson teams and all the fans picking a team will be out to pull for their outfit.

In the class A league the games that were scheduled for Aug. 25th and August 18th and which would have interfered with the State Championship play have been moved up so on Tuesday, June 13 Datson Dairies will play the Sentinel-Stars at 7:45 and Poinsettia will play Jackson at 9:00. On Friday the schedule calls for Datson and Jackson to meet at 7:45 and Poinsettia and Sentinel-Star at 9:00.

It seems to be the thing to do these days. Oh yes, we mean a visit to the Fern Park Dance and Garden Club after the regular schedule at dances which always end too early. This attractive club is located just nine miles north on the Sanford Highway and is open from early to late—and later.

John Pierson is taking his dairy products business seriously. Upon inquiry we find that John had secured his master's degree in college twelve years ago on a thesis on butter fats.

The warm weather has added to the trials and tribulations of the building superintendent, Henry Mayer. It seems that the tenants refuse to pull their windows down when leaving the office, and our showers invariable wait until night to perform.

Mrs. Hudgings seems busy with her work at the Shopping Guide. And alas, the Spectator is no more! Sam Shiver, Jerry Ruble, Clarence Brown, Dr. Beardall, etc., are lamenting the passing of the Spy Glass, Leslie Sander's provoking column.

Celebrated Sports Writer
A Weekly Feature of the
GREETER

"I'm not in tackle catalogs nor snooty record books;

I'm not supplied with Spunko lines or Never-gettem hooks;

I've never named a spinner nor immortalized a fly—

Which proves my reputation as a very modest guy,

Or else that manufacturers are damnably remiss,

For I can claim a record, and the way of it is this:"

The Lake Grove Hunting & Fishing Club on Dead Lakes just below Wewahitchka is the de luxe fishing club in this neck o' the woods and among its 250 members numbers most of the prominent sportsmen of southern Georgia and Alabama. Dead Lakes comprises 80 square miles of the finest bass waters in Florida and the bass fishing season opened June 1st., after a sixty days closed period. As a result the club veranda was thronged with fishermen when Big Talk and myself pulled up in the Franklin and pointer dog barked a joyous greeting to a huge collie that its owner was proudly leading no a leash.

Dr. H. T. McKinnon the club's president and manager extended a cordial reception, saw that we were comfortably located in one of the large lake-front rooms and then inquired if we were going to try the evening fishing, as some dozen boats were just leaving the dock. "Doctor," commenced Big Talk, "It would not be fair to your guests to permit us to compete with the array of sportsmen here assembled. Do you know who we are? This is the celebrated Central Florida bass fisherman, de luxe, old man Fitz, who for many, many years has been teaching big-mouths to swim and who is personally acquainted with every large-mouth bass in Florida waters. While not given to vain boasts I might mention that next to myself he is the greatest artificial bait caster that ever wet a line. We'll jst loaf 'round for a few hours and give the other boys a chance to get a few fish before we fill one of your boats with ten pounders. You realize, Doctor, that that Fitz and myself always fish ten-pounds-or-no-count, all fish under ten pounds we return to the waters." "After first wetting our hands before removing them from the hook," I supplimented.

While I located the club bar, a cold bottle of 3.2 and a sandwich Big Talk circulated among the rocking-chair brigade and every now and then I heard snatches of his conversation narrating battles with tarpon, man-eating sharks, marlin sword fish and barracuda, with occasional references to world's record bass of the large and small-mouth variety. I was introduced to Colonel Doolin, U. S. A. retired, and after eight or nine rounds the genial Colonel insisted that I try out his fly-rod. Now I'm no expert with a fly-rod. As a matter of fact and record it is the one item of fishing tackle that I know next to nothing about but the 32 calibre Slitz inspired me to attempt a few casts from the dock, just to show the boys what an expert caster and celebrated bass fishermen can do with a fly-rod and a bass-bug. By some horrible accident I got the lure into the air and some twenty-five feet from the dock and Sock-ko! A bass gobbled that bug, twisted the line 'round its gills and I led it to the beach and into the Colonel's waiting net. "Simple boys, very simple when you once get the knack of it." I smiled as I presented the five pound bass to the Colonel's lady and the Colonel and myself ducked back to the bar where I exhorted on the joys of fly-rod fishing for bass until long after midnight. Get a good press agent and the part plays itself.

SPARKS SHOWING BEST PICTURES HERE

The old slogan of "Clean up and Paint up" is good for the theatrical business, we see that the RITZ is being dressed up with "Art man" LEWIS making a new summer dress for the box office wherein those courteous girls take your money for a ticket to some of the finest of movie entertainment—we feel that the lads who tear that ticket and return one half should also be mentioned for courtesy.

When your Sweetheart, Wife or Mother, mislays her purse, or package while attending one of the SPARKS Theatres you may feel assured that one of these doormen will do everything to assist in its recovery.
