R. C. Anthony After my love to you in j. I trust remembered of you for -our prison, I hope was to advise that Anthony to keep to the work then being called there unto, & for work thou shalt not lack I will round it for thee, for by coming or sending once a week I can furn ish thee, if I be not restrained of my liberty also. Thou shouldst and these books in j. feet after thou receive them to com back by John Grindy if thou can, for j. boy must needs have them on the 3^d day next, for if thou gitt them not don to com by John, then you must endeavor to send them on j. second day by some j. come to the market, the man shoe is for Roland Bellas, he would not have them to very begg, Roder. thou knowest we will fitt him, j. brown shoe is for j. waiting maid at smedals such as j. other was, the black one is for widow Rinfinton daughter they must be widow 7^d as those brown shoes j. was made for Bradshaw wife of Bradsh -aw, I hope thou may procure a black ham for sometime I thought to a com my selfe but I think to go to warington to morrow if lord will, let me hear how you do, My love is to you all, I heard if you & Margerites should accuse some of you, for stealing a horse for ought they know, write to them & bid them prove it, or else they wilbe proved to be stande & false accuse, what abusif learn old they gave you, turn it back on them againe & lett them beare thier own shame, I think I have sent all j. will needs for j. shoes Som necessarye else my wife hath sent you we are all pretty well So rest you & loving friend
