Le fa:
 my duty to thee remembered this is to acquaint thee y^e no portion to y^e King for our liberty he promised he would do anything he could for us, so he neglected & did not so we sent to him again, then he said he could not do any thing for us for it was above him, but at y^e he would do what he speak to personal meet: y^e he would speak to y^e Justices to do us y^e favour as to let us have our liberty until y^e next quarter sessions, so we did speak both to the Justices and to the King but y^e both refused & would not unless we would have got out a sequestra which would have bound y^e King then when we had appeared before them & we were bound either to submit or travel so all prayer was at an end in no hopes of our liberty, I would have heard from thee as soon as thou can & send my love & send y^e Marquis Virgo, as be sure without fail send me a copy of y^e paper y^e Eliz: Court sent last to y^e meeting of y^e 20th the Hay-dock hath it so I would have had this to send by but first I let me know how it is with my master I have not heard any thing since I was with him, when I was with him on y^e 2^d day he was very hearty, & would have a great deal of talk together, as the Court was a while ago I came he heard that I was in he was laid down and y^e last he layed up &

Give I believe y^e King will do so lightly as for y^e King I am sure y^e King
 will do so I am sure y^e King
 will do so
