* if we have our liberty by this note if we write it some thing sergents us to plead all y: sizes, but I must have us at y: sessions my duty to thee remembred this is to acquaint thee y: this day Isaac moss Son y: beaver heretofore came from manchester to this town as there will be Nothing done as to our liberty, unless we will give a certificate under our hands unto y: Joylon = y: we will please unto y: Justices all y: Next quarter sessions at manchester, I have sent both y: paper y: was sent from west to y: Justices at manchester, & y: Answer y: y: Justices gave to Isaac moss wife, & to Nemiah: pool, where thou may better understand the thing how it is, how ever, looks in y: paper y: most sent, & then shall see until y: Next Lancaster sizes to be here held, & then to plead according to law, as y: said Justices shall be charge, now looks in their Answer & thou shall see you would Answer all y: Next sessions as y: Noat said now this is their policy y: Note doth not mention y: sessions but the sizes, but as I understand y: would have us to Answer according to y: Note y: is to plead, for which charge we were sent hither because we would neither submit nor travell & if we do y: now we fall under them so I cannot say what Isaac will do in it, but I am sure I do not intend to comply so far to their will, so I would have thee to send me my box by y: first for as I said before I am full of of our liberty unless we must use some private means, so I desire to hear from thee & how it is with my master by y: first I have he has not gone home it is not much matter of letting him see this letter but if thou see occasion thou may show him these 2 papers, I would have thee to see to y: seals y: it be up left at any time my letters should be broken up if y: be let me know Francis: Durr had got his liberty before I came & was gone away, let me said for my staying, y: man but took for y: kind of y: horse & being some thing in hast I kept with my love to my ant & alin & to all y: best of friends, thy duty full Son if thou have a comb for me I would have thee to send it y: box there may put it under the lid & send it again
