Over 100 guests gathered for Illuminating Love at the UCF Libraries

This past Valentine's Day the Special Collections and University Archives Department in UCF Libraries hosted a lecture by Dr. Margaret Ann Zaho, Visiting Instructor of Art History, on the late medieval French poem, The Romance of the Rose. While our guests enjoyed their heart shaped cookies and pink punch, they listened to Dr. Zaho's interpretation of this wonderful poem, which we are delighted to have as part of our ever growing collection.

After Dr. Zaho's enticing lecture, all guests were invited to the fifth floor for our exhibit of illuminated manuscripts facsimiles. These manuscripts contain text which is supplemented with the addition of illustrations, such as decorated initials, miniatures and borders. The exhibit covers three major categories reflecting medieval life, Love/Honor, Faith/Devotion and Fantasy/Myth.

More information about this event and many others can be found on our Special Collections Web site.

The Book Sale for You!

We have thousands of used books, videos and magazines donated by our patrons that will appeal to a wide variety of interests: history, arts, business, fiction, self motivation, etc.

How's your book collection coming along? Well, we can help update your collection! As part of our efforts to provide the best customer service within the UCF Libraries, we have established a Spring and Fall book sale for all of our staff members, students, and patrons. This year our Spring book sale will be held from March 20th to March 22nd.

You can enjoy a great selection and unbeatable prices! Expand your horizons, enrich your mind, save a bundle, and show support for your UCF Libraries by attending our Spring 2007 Book Sale. If you have any questions, please contact Traci Milbata at (407) 823-2521.

Leaving Your Legacy at the UCF Libraries

It is now easier than ever to show your support for the UCF Libraries! A few clicks of your mouse will enable you to make a tax-deductible gift that will greatly impact the UCF Libraries, and all of the students, faculty, staff, and friends that utilize our resources.

To make your gift online, go to our Online Giving site. You may designate your gift to specific funds within the library, and you may also designate gifts "In Honor" or "In Memory" of friends or family.

A gift of $50 will enable you to honor someone with a personalized book plate. The illustration on the right is an example of a book plate. A personalized note will be sent to the honoree notifying them that you have honored them at the UCF Libraries.

Please contact the Library Development Office at (407) 823-0564 for instructions on how to make a gift.

As always, thank you for your support of the UCF Libraries.
