D. P. I had an intention to write to Warrington to get business Liberty, so might I am not like to go my self in short tyme because of my weakness.
But last first day, Abram Garff ye told me yt Clarke of pease sayd, ye justifies woud send for them from Leicester unto yo Sessions, and if so I judge it better yt ye send for them, then ye com offer so short tyme before sessions but of this I am not for then, thou may send by first to Phinies of the Phinies & let the maior see this letter & he will in respect of the Judges order remon at the sessions at Leam' more & you some things but you all as to come to Manchester sessions so if you rem then Manchester Justices may clear them selfe if they be questioned how often that they object at the Judges request & then it may be they may then haue with you & sit against you upon some other forme & send you back againe but this only the maior but justice because of their crimyty against you all & in the meane tyme I wish you all to rest before hand with M. H. & send what is the best to do in this case if such a thing be proposed unto you by Remon or any other from the Justices
