Vol. II.

WINTER PARK, FLORIDA, FRIDAY, JANUARY 13, 1888.

No. 2.

A RETROSPECT.

The handsome little pamphlet issued this season by the Winter Park Company tells us that Mr. Loring A. Chase found Winter Park a nameless and almost uninhabited tract of pine woods, only seven years ago. Up to that time the place had attracted no more attention than any other similar area of pine woods, and showed no sign of the pretty town which was so soon to cover it. Mr. Chase, however, soon secured the aid of Mr. Oliver E. Chapman, and together they set to work to show to other people the possibilities of the place, which had taken possession of their own imaginations. In their own minds they saw a winter Newport or Saratoga springing from the stumps of the pine trees which were then the almost undisputed tenants of the ground. The South Florida Railroad, then being built, helped them to realize their plans by making the place accessible to the outside world—indeed, without that, perhaps the possibility of its development would not have occurred to them. Be that as it may, a very short time has proved that they made no mistake in their selection of a location. With full faith in their scheme, they went to work, laid out their town, advertised it extensively, brought people to see it, planted trees, built a store, town hall, and cottages, to show what could be done; and give an idea of what the town might be made when more people came to join them. After four years of this sort of work they had succeeded in arousing sufficient interest and gaining the confidence and co-operation of others to enable them to form the present Winter Park Company. This was in 1885, and that same year saw the Seminole Hotel built, and the Company fairly at work to carry out the plans of its promoters. The hotel was filled the first season, and much to their surprise, netted a handsome profit to the proprietors. Last year, although it was an exceptionally dull winter in Florida, the hotel again did well, and this season promises to go ahead of either of the others.

From the very beginning of the town's development, there has been a remarkably steady growth, which in spite of dull seasons has never stopped for a moment. Houses of tasteful design and comfortable size and appointments have multiplied year by year, stores have increased in number and extent of stock, churches have been built, hotels and boarding houses have been opened, and last, but far from least, Rollins College has been established, and has grown to a very important position among the educational institutions of the State. Meanwhile, the country about us has not been backward, and our merchants owe much of their success to the fact that quite a large area of country around finds its most convenient market here.

Our railroad, from a little seven-and-a-half ton engine, running on sixteen pound iron, with a gauge of three feet, has developed to a full-grown standard gauge road with engines of thirty tons and over running on fifty-pound steel rails, and pulling heavy trains of freight or first-class passenger coaches. Instead of a slow and uncertain service from Jacksonville by the river, we are now on the through rail route by which the mails reach Tampa, on their way to Key West and Havana. Besides this we have another railroad nearly ready for the iron between here and Orlando, and which it is intended to extend eastward to the Atlantic coast.

The best of it all is that everything that is here is here to stay. There is no make-shift, temporary work about it, but everything is well built and intended for permanent use. In this we differ from some mushroom places, that have grown up in a night, only to disappear as quickly. For a permanent town, our progress has been remarkably rapid and satisfactory, and we have every right to congratulate ourselves on the past, and look forward with confidence to the future.

A CALL at the Rogers House a few days ago was rewarded by a pleasant reception on the part of Mrs. Rogers, who takes a just pride in her pleasant company of guests, and her arrangements to make her house comfortable and attractive for them. Not least among the attractions of the house is the large flower garden around it, which abounds with rare and beautiful flowers and tropical fruits. The plants are evidently Mrs. Rogers' especial pets, and have had constant care and thought. The result is seen in a fine growth and an abundance of beautiful flowers, which are a source of pleasure to many besides the owner, as witness the fine display often seen in church, and the handful of roses which we carried home ourselves. If every one who enjoys the results of this garden would only take pains to go and do likewise, they would be well repaid themselves and be the means of pleasure to others as well.

Mr. Kennan's Russian article in the January number of The Century is entitled "Russian Provincial Prisons," and it includes several chapters on various methods of communication among prisoners, one of the most interesting of which is the "knock alphabet," by which the prisoners converse from cell to cell by a system of raps. The first of Mr. Kennan's papers was printed in the November Century, and the publishers announce that they will send the November and December numbers free to all new subscribers who begin with January, 1888.

THE Florida Dispatch last week contained a description of over forty varieties of Japanese persimmons, as published by the Agricultural Bureau at Tokio, Japan. A plate illustrating the different varieties accompanies the article, which gives their native names, description and uses. Several other articles follow giving the experience of growers of the fruit in Florida.

It is Our Turn Now.

Now that the railroads have made the long looked for reduction of fares into Florida, we may confidently expect a most gratifying increase in tourist travel and an influx of excursionists to the Sub-Tropical Exposition that will make Jacksonville decidedly lively.

The rates made from points south of the Ohio river are perhaps not quite so low as we would have desired, or as would have been reasonable under the circumstances. A round trip ticket from Atlanta to this city can now be bought for $10. This is certainly low, and ought to induce a vast amount of extra travel into the Land of Flowers; but when compared with the rate made from here to Atlanta during the Piedmont Exposition, it will be found to be nearly double. Life is too short to attempt to discover or to discuss the reasons, which have operated against us in this particular. Let us take what is offered and be thankful for it.

From points along the line of the East Tennessee, Virginia and Georgia Railway and its connections the rates are low—quite low enough to stop the cry that California is taking the cream of the tourist travel from the North and East, on account of extortionate charges to Florida. All that region, as well as the Atlantic sea-board, should now be flooded with Florida advertising literature and Sub-Tropical illustrated matter. The railroads, after a severe pressure from this end of the line, have finally done their share of the work. If the results are not immediate and gratifying to our expectations, the fault will now be our own. The way has been made ready; we should show these people that Florida has something worth a visit. —News-Herald.

Insect Friends.

Professor J. A. Lintner writes: It should be generally known that not all insects are injurious. There are those that are the farmers' and fruit growers' best allies, though often occurring under circumstances so suspicious as to cost them their lives. Of these are the numerous species of "lady birds" or "lady bugs" (Coccinellidae) abounding often upon sickly vegetation, infected with plant-lice, and only drawn there to feed upon the destructive aphides. Nearly all of the ichneumon flies are of great service to the agriculturist, from the immense number of caterpillars which they destroy. Many of the true bugs prey upon caterpillars and other injurious species. A large proportion of the Lampyridae—the family to which the "lightning bug" or "fire fly" belongs—feed on other insects in both their larval and perfect stages.—Prairie Farmer.

Recent investigations have shown that nearly a million pupils are in the public schools of the Southern States; that the amount of money expended annually for schools is $11,545,000; and that since 1880 the number of public schools has been increased from 45,000 to 61,583.

On the Black List.

Mr. George Kennan, the Siberian traveler and writer, has been black-listed by the Russian Government, and will not be permitted to re-enter the Czar's dominions. "I expected, of course," says Mr. Kennan, "to be put on the Russian black-list. I am only thankful that I succeeded in crossing the frontier with all of my material and papers coming this way. The outside of the Russian frontier line is a good enough side for me at present. I became satisfied before I got half through Siberia that I should never be permitted to go there again, and that after the publication of my papers no other foreigner would be allowed to make investigations there, and I lost no possible opportunity to secure accuracy and thoroughness. I brought back more than 50 pounds of notes, papers, and original documents, many of the latter from secret Government archives, besides 500 or 600 foolscap pages of manuscript prepared for me by political exiles in all parts of Siberia, and covering the most noteworthy episodes in their lives. I visited every convict mine in Siberia, and every convict prison except one, and I believe I know the exile system better than most officers of the exile administration, and far better than any outsider. I can regard the black-listing, therefore, with a certain degree of complacency. The stable-door is locked, but the horse has been stolen—and I've got him."—N. Y. Tribune.

WINTER PARK, JAN. 13, 1888.

AFTER many delays we are happy to be able to announce that our calendar is now ready. It will be sent to regular subscribers, and any others wishing for it may obtain it of Mr. Ladd without charge.

WE are glad to see that in spite of the difficulties in the way of railroad transportation, there are still a very fair number of students at the College from neighboring towns. They must have it, if it does come high.

THE season of winter travel is now fairly upon us. All the hotels in this part of the State are now open and all have made a beginning towards gathering their complements of guests. The first twenty miles of the South Florida Railroad is well supplied with good houses. The Sanford House at Sanford, the Waltham at Longwood, the junction with the Florida Midland Railway, the Altamonte at Altamonte Springs, the Seminole at Winter Park, the San Juan de Ulloa at Orlando—all are first-class houses, at which the most fastidious need not fear to stop, if suits his convenience to do so. This cluster of good hotels so near to each other should tend to increase the attractiveness of this region for tourists, as it is a well recognized fact that there is always more going on and a livelier and pleasanter season for the guests of every one of a group of hotels, than if possible with only a single one, however large and complete. We trust that all of them will see their interest in working together to make Orange County a favorite resort for winter visitors.

Railroad Men at the Seminole.

Promptly at 4 o'clock on the afternoon of the 12th, a special train bearing the U. S. Association of Traveling Passenger Agents pulled into the depot at Winter Park. They were met at the train by carriages and the street car and quickly transported to the Hotel Seminole, where in pleasant sails on the Fanny Knowles, promenades on the spacious verandas, views of the beautiful lakes, and viewing the lovely scenery from the top of the Hotel, the time until dark was spent. A business meeting of the Association was held at the Ladies' Parlor from six until seven and then the dining room doors were thrown open disclosing a sight never to be forgotten. The tables were set along each side of the dining room its entire length, and across the east end a table was placed at which the officers of the Association were placed facing the assembly. Beautiful pieces of fancy work in confectionery and pastry were scattered in profusion, alternating with bouquets and plates of lovely roses and flowers. Many of the guests were just from zero weather, and their astonishment at finding out in what they supposed was forest and pioneer's cabins such a fine hotel, and flowers so beautiful just out of the garden, knew no bounds.

The following menu was partaken of and enjoyed by the party and at ten o'clock the dinner was finished and all adjourned to the parlors, verandas and rotundas to talk, smoke and enjoy the music.

Forbes and Paige. They are a jolly, energetic party of gentlemen, and lovely ladies.

Following is a partial list, and while we are not able to give the residences of each, they are from all over the United States, and will spread the report of the magnificent Hotel Seminole and the beauties of Winter Park from sea to sea. Come again, all of you, and be certain of a warm, hearty welcome.

Troubles that Never Happen.

I have been greatly interested in the letters that have appeared in the Dispatch of late, and I feel satisfied there are a good many contented women in this State after all. To me it is one of the grandest places I have ever lived in, in which to study nature; there is so much of the time that we can live out of doors, and there are really many things that are new and interesting. During the latter part of September I took a journey from one county to another. We went in a buggy and I had an opportunity of looking over the common pine-land country through which we passed, and, to my surprise, I gathered that one day forty-four different varieties of flowers, some of them very delicate and lovely; so I think if we look more for buds and blossoms we shall find them more abundant, and the thorns less. I send you the following short article which may help some of your readers to see when they have made a mistake:

"A story is told of an old man who, in his long pilgrimage had borne many of the ills of life. His friends were condoling with him on the occurrence of some special affliction, and saying that he really had more trouble than other men, when he replied:

"Yes, my friends, that is too true. I have been surrounded by troubles all my life long; but there is a curious thing about them—nine-tenths of them never happened."

"What quantities of such troubles have afflicted us through all our pilgrimage! Many people take pains to secure all the enjoyment possible out of their troubles. They enjoy them in anticipation; and for all practical purposes a trouble which has not occurred is often fully equal to one which has. After having feared them, fretted over them, and talked about them in advance, then if they come, they have the good of them again; and after they have come and gone, they still can recollect them, and think them over, and derive great enjoyment from them. For those people who never are happy except when they are miserable, and who make the most of small troubles, seeing they are all they have, can derive nearly as much satisfaction from a dead trouble as they can from one that is alive. So, by anticipating them in the future, making the most of them in the present, and recalling them from the past, they keep themselves well supplied with troubles."—J. H., in Florida Dispatch.

Should visit Winter Park, and see the properties in our hands before making a selection. Winter Park is the loveliest and healthiest spot in Florida.

With its SEMINOLE HOTEL OF 250 ROOMS, its ROLLINS COLLEGE, the BEST SCHOOL in the STATE, and its EXCELLENT SOCIETY.

It presents social advantages which no other town in Florida can equal. It is within FOUR MILES of the prosperous town of Orlando, the county seat, with which it will shortly have hourly communication by rail.

*WINTER PARK, FLORIDA.*

A beautiful location on the Water-shed or backbone of Florida, with nine beautiful lakes of running water; with the Hotel Seminole, accommodating 400 guests; with Rollins College and its 100 students, with an able faculty under Rev. E. P. Hooker, D. D., President. It is one of the most charming resorts in the State. Thousands have visited it to find health and recreation this winter, and none have gone away disappointed. Its educational advantages and its healthfulness, its location and its easy access by railroad makes it the most desirable and loveliest spot in Florida.

Having added a General Real Estate Department, those having property to sell, as well as those looking for investments, will find it to their advantage to give us a call. Property will be shown free of charge and maps, circulars, etc., promptly furnished on application to

*LOCHMEDE*

We trust the people of Winter Park will be sufficiently pleased with our effort to give them an attractive paper to come to our support generously with advertisements and subscriptions, looking for the return on their investment quite as much to the impression of their town created by a presentable paper sent abroad, as to the direct value to them personally of the reading matter supplied, although we shall try to make this as good as possible, and of a character which shall be an index of the refined class of people to whom we look for support. Send us $1.50 for and see that all people at a distance, who are in any way likely to be interested in Winter Park have a chance to subscribe too. The more we get the better we can make the paper, and we shall take pride and pleasure in enlarging and improving as fast as we can afford to do so. Send us and do not be ashamed of a small one, nor too close in calculating the return from as big a one as you can afford. It will all help to make a good showing for the town.
