this that and the other—

The inevitable has happened—they all fall sooner or later—but imagine our own Johnnie Wigfall ups and says "I do" in Washington last week. Mrs. Wigfall was Miss Elizabeth Ripley, well known in the City Beautiful. But what sets us back is that in last week's issue we advised you good unsuspecting readers that Johnnie was off working on the recovery code for the laundrymen, when he was working a code of his own. Good luck Mr. and Mrs.

The N. I. R. A. new deal started off with a bang, but at Kleppers Ladies Ready to Wear it worked like lightning, no sooner had Mr. Klepper placed the "WE DO OUR PART" sign in his window (the first sign displayed) than a passerby sighted the prompt work, walked in the store and bought a new dress. But Kleppers is always just ahead in style and quality.

Printer Ed. Brown is busy checking up on the printers. As secretary of the Master Printers Association he will see that the N. R. A. Code is enforced to the letter of the law—which ought to be easy with $500.00 a day and or 30 day imprisonments looking the violators squarely in the face.

RIDING POPULAR AT COUNTRY CLUB

Now the Country Club is off to a good fall start. Getting a little head start Jack Branham, President, is lining up his committees in good for many some real announcements will be made soon. Mr. and Mrs. George Largent have done wonders there this summer and a feeling of genuine WELCOME ceasesone as they enter the Club House.

Horse back riding has been the stellar attraction at the club this summer and is growing in popularity each day. If you are not already an adept horseman call the Country Club stables at 8321 and make an appointment with W. W. Brown for a lesson in this real sport. Justice Sam Shiver has just moved his proud mount to the club stables for schooling. Doc Rocher Chappel keeps in trim with a daily ride and prescribes it for obesity.

PUTTIN' ON THE RITZ?

Walking down the avenue the other day, could not but notice the new display banner in front of the Beacham theatre. I must say that it is exceptionally attractive and should prove an excellent advertising asset.

This picture, "Puttin' on the Ritz" has caused more comment on the street than anything that has happened in Orlando lately except the NRA. A great number of people make the remark, "I wish they'd make up their mind when they are going to play it." So to satisfy the doubting Thomases I now proclaim that it is showing at the Beacham.

We notice that the Beacham have their NRA signs conspicuously posted in their lobby. You can always count on a local concern being behind everything that is for the public good.

fishing

BY

HARRY E. FITZGERALD
Celebrated Sports Writer
A Weekly Feature of the GREETER

Harry E. Fitzgerald

I will go fishing but never arrayed,
Like the head of the lodge in a Shriners' parade.
I'll never wear "bloomers" or "Binder-Boys" pants
But I'll give the poor fishes a Chinaman's chance.

For every hunter in Florida there are probably a hundred persons who, at some time of the year, wet a line. From the kid with a cane pole to the casting crank with his battery of costly rods, Florida fishermen constitute an army. During the winter months when the fishing waters of other states are ice covered, Florida offers the finest fresh and salt-water fishing in the world. Last year the celebrities of the nation, including President Hoover, tried their luck with rod and reel and departed immensely pleased with the sport afforded them by Florida's finny tribe.

Canada has just published statistics showing more than fifty thousand Americans crossed her border weekly during the summer months, and since the advent of prohibition Canada has had only two stellar attractions—the other one is fishing.

Orlando has a score of lakes within the city limits and most of them are well populated with black bass. Within a radius of fifty miles, by good auto roads, are some of the finest bass fishing lakes in the world. Lake Apopka, Sawgrass Lake, Lake Washington, Alligator Lake, Blue Cypress, Lake Hart and Lake Helen Blazes have furnished record fish awarded prizes by Field and Stream in its annual fishing contest for the past five years. Here are modern hotels with reasonable rates, good schools, churches and every other requirement for those disciples of Sir Izaak Walton who are looking for a suitable place to spend the winter and every second person you meet will go fishing or row a boat.

EXPORT AND IMPORT

Millions now dying have never lived because of too much static in their radio activity. Likewise many who think, "O, I'll be sitting pretty when my ship comes in," have not sent out the equivalent to insure their treasure ships safe arrival.

The machine is not to blame for the plight of the masses. Recent statistics by Mr. Ernest T. Weir, tinplate magnate of Weirton, W. Va. show that the available jobs per thousand of population in the U. S. has steadily risen from 340 in 1880 to 383 in 1900 and 398 in 1930.

Work or no work, there is no activity constantly carried on by everyone thruout all life. Little does the average person realize that all of life's happenings, whether good, bad or indifferent, are governed by one's radio activity. Each individual is a perfect combination of a movie camera, a broadcasting and receiving station and a television instrument. Broadcasting constantly going on over the varying wave lengths of thought, vision, speech and emotions which messages inevitably control and determine the operators actions, as well as all events, circumstances, conditions, environments, etc., experienced in the life of each operator.

When thoughts, words, ideals and emotions of harmony, courage, goodwill, abundance, plenty, honesty, justice, purity, praise, co-operation, etc. are entertained, these invariably create and attract their visible counterparts. Likewise disorder, fear, envy, lack, depression, dishonesty,

The young man was rather shy, and after she had thrown her arms around him and kissed him for bringing her a bouquet of flowers he jumped up and grabbed his hat.

"Oh, don't go," she said as he made for the door. "I didn't mean to offend you."

"Oh," I'm not offended," he replied. "I'm going after more flowers"

Yearling—Brwoning is dead sir, and no one else knows.

The student just out of college was reading his first salary receipt and observed the following legend:

"Your salary is your personal business—a confidential matter—and should not be disclosed to any one else"

The young graduate signed the receipt and added: "I won't mention it to any one. I'm as ashamed of it as you are."

DUBSDREAD LINKS ATTRACT MANY

Hot weather only serves to whet the ardor of the Golfers it seems from the crowds over the Dubsdread links. And justly so because under the guiding hand of Carl Dann, Junior, owner and golfer extraordinary, the Dubsdread links are rapidly being worked into the sportiest course in the state. We cannot mention Dubsdread unless we suggest you have a lesson from Roy Horan, club Professional, who himself does not guarantee, but his friends attest he will lower your score several strokes in just a lesson or so. Slim Hoffman, caterer, is usually on hand to serve you whatever you want.

If you can see some good in everybody, nearly everybody will see some good in you.

Riding on the crest of the new wave of prosperity, A. J. Routhier has moved the Central Machine and Parts Co. to a more advantageous location to downtown Orlando at 40 West Central Avenue. Mr. Routhier has been in business in Orlando since 1914. He has given splendid service to the automotive industry in this section for ten years at his N. Garland St. location. C. H. Mole head machinist, has been with the Central Machine and Parts Co. for over thirteen years—this is certainly indicative of the stability of this organization.

More people all the time are recognizing the benefits to be derived from drinking that famously pure Orange City Water. After a trial bottle you will be convinced that it is all that it is supposed to be and more. Call G. W. Briggs, local distributor, at 5612 for a trial bottle.

If you are planning a quite evening at home, why not stop at Charlie's Place next to the Postal Telegraph Office and get some beer, a few magazines and your favorite smoke? If you forget your beer, Charlie will be glad to deliver it to your home at no additional cost.

In spite of wars, depressions and bank failures, women still desire to attain beauty. Andre's Beauty Salon at 220 S. Main is the means to that end. They will give you excellent service at a very reasonable price.

N. R. A. has forced every business man to take stock of his accounts. More than ever it is imperative that one knows, not guess at his standing. Baker and Garrett of the Orlando Audit Company are working overtime, figuring out ways and means for business men to work less.
