Technology Fee Updates

March 9, 2015

Eight technology fee proposals for the UCF Libraries have been approved in 2014, since our previous update (<http://illuminations.library.ucf.edu/2014/09/23/technology-fee-updates/>). Three are technology related: upgrades for the Main library study rooms, a Learning Lab and Production Center at Curriculum Materials Center, and the purchase and development of an Institutional Repository.

The other five are new content purchases with a considerable amount of new primary source content. All of the content purchased with by technology fee money is currently available. More information about the current and past technology fees can be found at <http://library.ucf.edu/TechFee> (<http://library.ucf.edu/TechFee>).
