J. C. H. / Lenington 10 of 10th month deare I have returned thy letter with the Deed and I have been with Thomas — Boand and he hath returned the ten pound and about fifty shillings heard at Lenington and the rest is yours to pay, we are not yet called we have written to the Judge and in. f. and some others hath been with and he hath promised he will call us and do what Law will do for us, and he is — a Lawier he tryeth things to the bottom he hath condemned none I think to go to London all when I am at Liberty this is the most I have at present but my deare love to thou & Ann & all the family I hope and beseech you all fare well
