Curriculum Alignment with Alexander Street Press and Gale

March 9, 2015

Two of the vendors the UCF Libraries works with have asked for UCF faculty to participate in their pilot curriculum alignment programs. These programs are run by the experts and editors who built their respective collections. Gale will be aligning syllabi with their primary source content and any other content that UCF Libraries has unlimited simultaneous access too. Alexander Street Press is going to align syllabi with videos and videos collections that UCF Libraries has purchased.

After submitting your syllabus to one of the programs Gale or Alexander Street Press will provide a link with all the content they believe will work for your class.

This would be a free service during the pilot and only requires a course syllabus (also any assignments you wish to share). If you would like to participate or need more information please contact Michael Arthur at Michael.arthur@ucf.edu (<mailto:Michael.arthur@ucf.edu>).
