Dear friend

Lambeth? 3d. 4th mth 1644

Bolowd in the truth, in my low- hath aboundd many times towards thee, & vnderneath forth all this time- unto thee, though outwardly separated, there is no place so remote- that thy low- cannot reach unto, if I be not of it be the way, I shall nor place so strong- whose bars can hold it, for I shall which is low; nor yet I shall its current stream for issue my forth, for truly thy friend though low- confirmed in yon, my low- is for, for which I do daily salute thee, where I truly low- in the Lord, and whose prosperity in the truth I do find as my for my own- soul, and the Lord hath raised this low- in my heart towards thee, god almighty I pray thee- & mine-worthy of his low- which hath lowd us, in whose low- our low- one- to another? was first begotten, and in which it hath outward- untill this day, I hope will increase fro: day to day, that which is absent in body, yet present in mind, to in low- with is for, with much water cannot quench, we may sympathize one- with another? & return- god y- praise who is worthy for us. My friend I with 4 more friends do here- confirm to wit Rink: Pubban God: Altherton Geo: Shaw: Edw: Lyon, who ledg- in it room- in I catch when Margret- was prison? have-liberty, some time- to go- into town; we have little hopes of return, liberty all spent. y- joy? being- disappointed of his and we was gain, his not every pleasant towards us, he-expected we should have had but & more with him but we-would not, for with respect we are more straitened, but we- do not question but to work thorough in due time. My friend do- I- fir- one- certify fro: thee- with is thy assistance to kind or borrow for mine- ten pounds to be ready about y- 22 of this instant. I am to pay it to Hugh Proby being-money? I borrowed of him & was to pay him again. I shall pay it in my absence thou can provide it, & pay it, it will be a great kindness- to me, & it was in my mind- to request thee rather than any other? I expect to return- H: Currys money upon y- first of next month being- Quarterly meeting- and then thou may have it again, yet thou cannot do- it, I desire to hear- fro: thee if I may rest oth- wife, if I hear- not I shall only to thee- salute. I do Harrison & Ann. with my dear low-as my Companion R: L. broth- H. little of H. C. I do Holles Lydy-& the: Bayly if he- be- with the- wife- Alit- Worthington, so-not more- but my dear- low- once more to thee I wish remember my low- to go- refer thy well- friend
