EDITOR'S NOTE—The article on the next column is by Harry E. Fitzgerald, noted sports-writer whose weekly articles on FISHING, have been a feature of the Greeter for the past three years.

They say the knocker rules

The bulk of ev'ry map;

They say that very few of them

Pass-up a chance to rap.

But you can take this to your heart

And let it cherish there,

They very seldom pan a guy

That doesn't get somewhere.

Right now every forks-of-the-creek yokel who salted a few hundred dollars in the postal-savings, safety-deposit or the well known family sock, and thereby dodged the effects of the depression, is a self-constituted Sir Oracle. From his learned lips flow gems of economic lore that surpass in basic wisdom the sage advice of the great Ricardo or the equally famous John Stuart Mill.

It is due to the frenzied mouthings of these financial morons that we have a continuance of the depression. Nothing, in their estimation, is good! The future is fraught only with doubt and despair and we are all headed for hell via the shortline revolution route.

Listen, Suckers! This country of ours is entirely too great and powerful to succumb for any length of time to any depression—financial or otherwise. We have had panics in our money marts during the past and they have invariably been followed by years of record breaking prosperity. History always repeats, and when the upward trend again commences the optimistic dreamers and odds of today will be "out-in-front" in the full fanfare of prosperity, while most of the knockers and "sure-thing" gettry will be back in the rank and file of the ne'er-do-wells.

Five years hence the skeptics of today will narrate the wonderful money-making opportunities presented to them in Florida during 1933 and rejected because they lacked both vision and guts. During the past few years I have barned on FISHING as a major attraction in Florida and emphasized its tremendous importance as a drawing card. Maybe I have wasted considerable printer's ink and ruined many reams of perfectly good paper, but aside from these conclusions a majority of you will live to see most of my predictions come true. The greatest asset Florida has today is its attractiveness to winter tourists and a majority of them are fresh or salt-water fishermen. Climate and outdoor sports are and will long continue to be its major attraction.

Eliminate the knockers and the surething gentry who are willing to play any game fifty-fifty—if you furnish both fifties. Those wise-cracking pessimists who see nothing but dire disaster in store for America and are willing to stand by and grunt while others labor should be shunned. Some day men of sagacity and the commonest kind of common sense will own and operate a well-equipped fishing resort in this section of the state, take advantage of the God-given inland lakes and rivers with their population of black bass. Some day such a group of men will profit immensely from their investments, but it will never be any of the fifty-fifty, moral support boys; nor their grunts. Years ago Alfred Tennyson wrote: "Its money now that makes the man—and lack of it, the fellow." Were Tennyson alive today he would have reached the same conclusion.

On and off the Avenue

Here is news! Hart Swalstead, leading Orlando Jeweler, comes out frankly stating that he "must raise cash" and beginning yesterday afternoon and continuing each and every afternoon and evening at 2 and 7 o'clock Swalstead's big stock of jewelery-diamonds, watches and cle or articles you wish will be placeed on the everything will be offered at auction. Any artiblock. 28 North Orange is the place, Swalstead's is the name but it's your opportunity.

The Rialto Gift Shop, 322 E. Park Ave., Winter Park extends you a special invitation to visit and inspect their select line of gifts. Who dosen't like to give Bridge prizes and other gifts that are beautiful and very unusual. What bride wouldn't like to recieve some of the rare glass carried in this shop. Take a tip from me and hurry down.

Spring Fashion Show

Attention is being focused on the fashion show being staged at the Beacham Theatre Wednesday and Thursday of this week, under the sponsorship of the Junior Welfare Association. Gowns and sports wear being modeled in this show are being arranged by Frances Slater. Plan to turn out for this big event and see just what's what for milady's wardrobe this spring.

FORWARD ORLANDO

The Forward Orlando movement is gaining pround every hour and Thursday noon is the time set for the first meeting when Orlando civic leaders will present a solid front to forward Orlando to better days. So great was the enthusiasm engendered in the meeting held at the Chamber of Commerce building last week and so important was the attendant publicity that Orlando was alive, a stranger from somewhere north of the Mason-Dixon line walked into the O. B. & T. Building and shoved a sizeable check in the window with the simple statement that she wished to make a deposit. While we do not vouch for the veracity of this story, Commissioner Carl Tegder can tell you more.

SYMPHONEY CONCERT MONDAY

The Florida Symphony orchestra conducted by Dr. Clarence Carter Nice will appear for the first time this season Monday evening at the Municipal Auditorium. The curtain will rise at 8:15 o'clock.

The orchestra will be composed of approximately fifty expert musicians selected from all sections of Florida. Included in the ensemble will be many artists who are engaged regularly by the large northern symphonies.

Just because the style show will only show milady whats the style is no reason that the mere malcs should not be up on the things to wear. Drop in to Daniels Habidashery at 119 So. Orange and see the latest at Style Headquarters.

If you are really interested in protecting your health drink Orange City Water. Acknowledged the world's best and claimed to be 99.99% pure. Delivery to your door will be made by the Orlando distributor A. W. Briggs, Phone 5612 for your health's sake is the doctor's recommendation.

BUY WORLD'S FAIR STAMPS— BOOST FLORIDA

The big drive to raise funds to help pay for Florida's Exhibit at the Chicago World's Fair this summer is on. The expense of Florida's exhibit must be borne by the citizens who are Believers in Florida, and Florida's participation in the "Century of Progress" Worlds Fair. The necessary money is being raised in two ways; by contributions from the counties of Florida thru their county commissioners, and through the sale of Florida Advertising Stamps at only one cent each, and this stamp sale is now underway. These stamps are very attractive, in orange and green, and their use on the reverse side of envelopes going out of Florida to all parts of the country, will afford splendid advertising for the whole state, and direct attention to Florida's exhibit at the Fair.

They are in sheets of 100 for one dollar, and each purchaser is entitled to a free chance on the eight hundred paid tours available to Florida citizens in connection with this advertising stamp campaign. As any amount of stamps can be purchased, it is possible for every Florida citizen to have a part in this financial plan, even if small, and all are urged to lend their active support to this state activity by purchasing and using these Florida advertising stamps, and thereby help to finance Florida's exhibit at the World's Fair. Let's go Florida.

DIAMONDBALL—The opening of the Diamondball season is the next major event under the supervision of the Recreation Dept. and plans are being made to make this the greatest diamondball season in the history of Orlando.

TENNIS—The new tennis courts that have just been opened at Exposition Park give the Recreation Dept. six of the best tennis plants in the entire South.
