Phineas if Margot should as some one for them some but she also the money that she owes I think by me it to have your sent money for then have none of it I think out for giving you long time along it I forgot to speak of this before I came to have for the little but it is long you in her hand & with trouble with it with others as well as with her for worry what if after find her with after days no more but love to you all who are the further R D the first of M. 76

I wish too before I come over to bow the accounts over again Phineas I believe that thou owes changes goods sent but to be whose I have suffered of this black blood must by I shall find it & take as much as I can when the flying is made
