THE GREETER

FALL OPENING AND MERCHANDISE FESTIVAL OCT. 6 AND 7

With constantly increasing interest among Orlando merchants in the Fall Opening which will be held in the city on October 6 and 7, the event promises to be one of the brightest periods in local merchandising annals.

Stores in all lines of business are planning novel and graphic presentations of new fall styles. Some of the features will be an unveiling of the windows in the downtown district at eight p. m. Thursday, Oct. 5th. At that time the Orlando

Boys' Band will furnish music, many merchants are planning unusual features and the windows will reveal the latest dictates of Dame Fashion in apparel for every member of the family, jewelry, shoes and furniture.

Every store in the city is urged to cooperate with the opening by keeping their windows dark until eight o'clock on Oct. 5th, at which time all windows will be illuminated simultaneously.

BE DOWNTOWN THURSDAY, OCTOBER 5 at 8:00 P. M.

on and off the avenue

The Flamingo, one-half mile out on the Cheney Highway, is just the place to go to forget all the cares of abusiness day. Here you can find complete relaxation dining and dancing to the music furnished by Cherry Owens' excellent orchestra. Make up a party of your friends and drive out to the most popular night club in Central Florida.

Water seems just a commonplace necessity. We seldom think of its vital necessity in conjunction with our health. But no man can go without water for any length of time without suffering untold agony. Why not supply your household or office with the purest water obtainable, Orange City Water. Call G. W. Briggs at 5612 for a trial bottle today and literature telling you about the merits of this pure drinking water.

With the newest fashions decreeing high necklines, full bosoms, and slim waists, some of us may find it rather hard to buy dresses that fit. Why not coose one of these new patterns, select the proper material and then have Mrs. John Todd at 17½ S. Orange Ave., make the frock corresponding to your measurements. You can be assured of a perfect fitting plus individuality. Mrs. Todd will be glad to help you in the choosing of your pattern and material, if you so desire.

Choosing a kindergarten for your child is really an important and serious problem. It is here that the child receives his or her first impressions of school life and it is largely these impressions that are carried through later years. The Greeter lists the best of kindergartens in Orlando. One of these, we are sure, will meet your requirements.

"TOURS AND DETOURS" BOOST ORLANDO TO THOUSANDS

With the heading "Include Orlando In Southern Trip" The City Beautiful is getting a real break in publicity this month in the Standard Oil Co., (Ky.) travel paper "Tours & Detours". A. B. Christer editor of the publication writes that over 100,000 copies of the Magazine will be distributed to bona fide tourists in the next few weeks.

The beauty and advantages of Orlando and Winter Park are not only described but front page pictures help with the story. Thank you.

winter park news rollins college notes

Rollins College opened its 49th year Tuesday, September 26, with Freshman Week. Regularly scheduled classes will begin on Tuesday, October 3rd. Prominent among the seventeen new appointments to the teaching staff are those of Ricard Burton, poet, critic, and essayist; Edwin Granberry, Florida novelist; Baron Paul d'Estournelles de Constant of France; Dr. Louis E. Wise, professor emeritus of the New York College of Forestry; and Dr. Earl E. Fleischman, former head of the English Department at Drury College.

Harve Clemens, director of the Conservatory of Music, will open his Appreciation of Music course the week of October 9th. The course, which was popular with outsiders last year when it was inaugurated, will probably be held on Tuesdays instead of Thursdays, and further announcements will be in the daily paper. Classes are open to the public for a modest fee.

Organ Vespers, open to the public, will be held Tuesdays and Fridays at 6:05 in the Knowles Memorial Chapel, Herman Siewert, organist has announced.

GANGSTER TURNS COMIC FOR "THE LITTLE GIANT"

Something novel in spectacular comedy will be offered in "The Little Giant," starring Edward G. Robinson, which comes to the Rialto Theatre, next Thursday and Friday, October 5-6, when a Chicago "beer mob" becomes polo-conscious, splits up into two rival polo teams and, with the opposing gangsters mounted on horseback in full polo regalia, engage in a pitched battle with polo balls and mallets. This unique polo match is merely one of the numerous hilarious highlights of Robinson's latest First National starring vehicle. Robinson has the role of an underworld monarch who suddenly forsake his racketeering when beer is legalized to become a gentleman and break into high society. Mary Astor has the leading feminine role.
