John

of Lutter if I have. I am not at home the guilt to your hope by this because I have been in town all horse to morrow for I have not if if thou shouldst not turn neither 5 nor 6 days not brought for last but till the 3 days next week not so comfortably come before market day it is for I am out of order with my wounds were made old might work I be sure to be to my not that I find our wants & find accordingly we want mending we have not many fyers left & good small ball we want for work have none but found & count out were found more work when thou thinkst must come if I find more a year or 2 in writing what was done about the diffy it is if I should find fault not to bring what I have written for the brought, no not so good as formerly no more but that I am Ralph Donistoun
