this that and the other—

They say "history repeats itself" and if that is true we should have some fire crackers shooting off in the not far distant future—The mysterious Winter Garden Vigalantes recall to mind that the natives will stand just so much—PAUL L. PIERCE of Loomis LEEDY—Howard WHEELER organization is busy night and day—PAT MARSHALL ex transportation tycoon, banker, and fruit grower, packer and shipper spreading glad tidings—E. J. JOHNSON ex General Motors booster is said to have been attacked by the BB (Banking BEE)—C. D. KIRK has a passion for neckties—Doc John ROCHER CHAPPLE makes all the football games—JOE PERRY tells us that it takes a pound of turkey, live weight, for each dinner service—no wonder we always eat too much at Perrydell—The beauty business seems to be on the up and up CHAS WRIGHT opens a new shop in Winter Park—The Junior Chamber slogan "Vote as you please but vote" is all right if you vote for me is the remark of Ted REID—I have never met EBBIE HANSEL—JACK SPARLING never misses a boxing match—GEORGE NASH has been battling our civic problems for us for many years and reminds us of the old adage "never change a horse in the middle of the stream"—PATCHES WOOD and I are on the same party line telephone and nairy a cross word yet but he does leave his receiver off the hook sometimes—Johnny THOMAS says they still slip REEDS Karmelkorn and peanuts into the BEACHAM despite close watch at the door, ALVIN HOOK used to maintain an effective blockade, he had a nose for peanuts that was extraordinary—HAROLD CONDUCT, Notary Public and realtater still has birthdays—many folk we know have long since stopped, claiming it an old fashioned custom.

LIVELY SCRAP SCHEDULED MONDAY

Promoter Turner Scott has announced that Charley Webber, welterweight of Sarasota, will meet Lee Cox Monday night at the Coliseum.

Cox has been training hard at his Taft camp and will be all ready to go Monday night. Webber is well known in these parts to fight fans. He holds a four round technical k. o. over Bobby Wilson in Tampa and a two round knockout over Moon Mullins and a slashing win over Whit Webb. Be on hand for the good preliminaries which start at 8 p. m.

on and off the avenue

Have you seen the stunning display in the windows of the Frances Slater gown shop? One look and we know you'll be convinced that here in Orlando women have at their disposal a shop that offers distinctive and individual dresses. And isn't that the aim of all femininity? Just drop in at this exclusive shop at 20 N. Orange Ave.—the rest will take care of itself. And remember that "Slater dresses are distinctive."

Just the place to relax, be your carefree self, and have a good time—the Flamingo, one half mile out on the Cheney Highway. Here with good food and excellent music plus pleasant surroundings, you can have a real evening of enjoyment. Drive out tonight with a party of friends.

Suits will play an important part in the wardrobe of this winter and because they are so practical this is welcome news. Perhaps you have something of last season that could very well be remodeled and put in step with the latest fashion. Why not call Mrs. John Todd, 17½ S. Orange Ave. She will be more than glad to advise and suggest in your particular case. Mrs. Todd is an expert in all lines of dressmaking and remodeling.

For an excellent dinner, perfect service, beautiful surroundings and everything to make you feel perfectly content, the Perrydell is all of that and more. Located at 22 E. Gore on the beautiful Beeman Estate, it is really one of the showplaces of Orlando. "Out-of-town visitors should not fail to include the Perrydell in their "where to eat" schedule. Once tried, we know it will be the favorite.

You're lucky again! By calling G. W. Briggs at 5612 you can receive a trial bottle of the purest water obtainable—actually 99 and 99/100 per cent pure. Orange City Water, once tried, will be a regular feature in your household and office. Safeguard your health by drinking plenty of pure Orange City Water.

It matters not what needs repairing or redecorating home or office. Call Jack Stevens, General Contractor, at 4870 or drop him a line at Route 1, Box 97B and have him figure the job. Now is the time to have that work done which has already been too long delayed.

Out-of-town visitors will find, as have the people of Orlando, that the best place to send your laundry is the Orlando Steam Laundry, phone 3176. Prices are very reasonable and the quality of work will more than satisfy you. Cleaning and dyeing service is also maintained.

Is your car running as smoothly as it could? If not, why not take it to Al Huppel and take advantage of his super shock absorber service. Located at 443 W. Central Ave., this shop can care for all your automotive electric needs, carburetor repairing, battery service, etc.

Dr. Earl E. Wleischman, professor of drama and the speech arts at Rollins College, will give an address on Eugene O'Neill's play, "Lazarus Laughed" at the Morning Meditation in Knowles Memorial Chapel Sunday at 9:45. He will discuss the contrast of philosophies in the play, how O'Neill succeeds in harmonizing them, and will discuss the relation of the play to the New Testament.

Dr. Fleischman, who joined the Rollins faculty this year, was formerly head of the Department of English at Drury College faculty of the University of Michigan.

DUBSDREAD ENTERTAINING MEMBERS AND FRIENDS

TUESDAY NIGHT

Members of the Dubsdread Country Club have received a letter signed by Carl Dann Jr. A paragraph from this epistle reads as follows:

"We worked very hard all summer on Dubsdread and spent all the money we could get hold of. We kept very quiet about it but we think it's time now to have an old fashioned free feed out there. We have got hold of some very fine draught beer, plenty of sauer kraut, weenies, baked ham, pigs feet, cheese, pickles, crackers and a lot of other stuff. On Tuesday night, October 24th, at seven o'clock we are going to start to eat on it. We want you to be there because we don't want to waste the stuff."

BAD MEMORY

Rollins Prof.: "Do you know what happened in 1776?"

Frosh: "1776? Gosh! I can't even remember what happened last night."

TIMES HAVE CHANGED

Uncle and neice stood watching the young people dancing about them.

"I bet you never saw any dancing like this back in the nineties, eh Uncle?"

"Once—but the place was raided."

Wife: Dear, I've set my heart on a Rols Royce.

Hubby: Yes? Well, that's the only part of your anatomy that'll ever set on one!

"Why is it that sometimes you seem manly and sometimes effeminate?"

"Heredity, I suppose."

"Heredity?"

"Yeah. Half of my ancestors were men and the other half were women."

c. of c. notes

Registration of winter visitors to Orlando are increasing daily. It is evident that Orlando's winter population will be considerably larger this year than in recent years past. One of the most encouraging factors in the present picture is the number of visitors who state that this is their first visit to the city. Of course, all of the old timers are returning too. At least one family is back in Orlando for the 24th winter.

Orlando's advertising and publicity campaign is getting under way. Also the plans for the winter entertainment are shaping up. This year the program will be a continuous one through the entire season and up until late Spring. The chamber of commerce is doing everything in its power to see that visitors enjoy themselves.

One of the big features for the winter will be the amateur air meet to be held in January. Plans are being perfected to make it a great event that will attract national attention.

A lady had just purchased a postage stamp at the P. O. "Must I stick it on myself?" she asked.

"Positively not, madam," replied William S. Smith of the Orlando office; "It will accomplish more if you stick it on the envelope."

1 C: Ya gotta cigarette?

4 C: Sure.

1 C: Ya gotta match?

4 C: Great Scott! Ya didn't bring along anything but the habit did you?

TUG BOAT ANNIE

Screen fans, who have been clamoring for a return to the screen of Marie Dressler and Wallace Beery ever since "Min and Bill," have their wish granted at "Tugboat Annie," with the beloved Marie as the redoubtable feminine tugboat skipper of Puget Sound, playing at the Rialto Theatre Sunday and Monday.

Based on Norman Reilly Raine's Saturday Evening Post stories, filmed on actual locales, with real thrills of ship rescues in the storms, and the amazing feat of Beery who repairs a boiler, by going into a blazing firebox at sea, the new Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer picture shows the pair in comical quarrels, mingled with episodes of poignant heart interest.

Mervyn LeRoy, who directed "I Am a Fugitive" and other hits, directed the picture, adapted to the screen personally by the author of the original stories. An elaborate cast includes Robert Young and Maureen O'Sullivan as the young lovers, Willard Robertson, Tammany Young, Frankie Darro, Jack Pennick and Paul Hurst in waterfront character roles. Clever camera work amid the maritime thrills, storms and adventures adds a tang of excitement to the vivid production.

LADY FOR A DAY

In eight different motion pictures Ned Sparks, screen comedian, has had the same character name—"Happy."

Appearing in Columbia's "Lady For A Day," on view at the Beacham Theatre, Sparks is a "stooge" for Warren William, the star. He is called "Happy" because he's a decidedly pessimistic, unhappy individual. The name is a bit of sarcasm.

"I was 'Happy' in Double Cross Roads, 'Leathernecking,' 'Iron Man,' 'Fall Guy,' and

'The Big Noise,'" Sparks says, "before taking on this moniker again in 'Lady For A Day.' But I don't care. It seems to be a lucky handle for me—at least I keep working all the time."

Those familiar with Ned's dour facial expression, his metallic, droll method of speaking, and his generally melancholic attitude, can well understand the humor of applying the title "Happy" to him.

Scenario writers turning out stories with that sort of a character in them naturally think of Sparks as the actor to play the role, and instinctively they call him "Happy," remembering the name from previous films.
