Hi 16th mo 76.

So far

after the remembrance of bears loud how are to be uajnt the yester day as I was coming all by: also how by the looks in bears there what a horrid thing in G: Rags & Afrighted G: horse so fast he did shake my body pretty much but G: was not so much to me as when he came to bears bridge he started against so G: he started me so much G: I grew very sick & was so sick and I got home I had much ado to get on him & when I came in grew worse & worse so G: I could not where to sit stand or lay but vomited very sore & gotten I came into town it was about eleven A Clock & about 9 hours & half after I went to bed & was ex-breame & vomited both times & about 4 or 5 A n hour after I got on my clothes & got up again & was pretty well & in whether it was G: starting of G: horse G: was G: moving Camps or G: former an unexpected distemper of vomiting I have had I do not know but I was ex-breame by taken w: sickness all my stomach & pain in my head for about 5 hours but am now very well only G: vomited some of my ex-breame & whole distemper, the bear loud & onto the not but rest, thy son
