this that and the other—

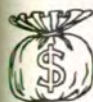

Things are on the up—every day brings news of some business that is peeping out of his shell and getting ideas of how and why of business getting—here we must quote “seek and ye shall find—ask and it shall be given to you”—scatter your talents in the right direction etc. all disprove the out lived adage “every thing comes to him who waits—every girl or boy for that matter knows the falacy of this statement. When a baby is hungry it doesnt wait peacefully it advertises its wants and usually lands the order—so be it.—“ROSE knows where money grows” maybe but it sometimes comes via sheriff HARRY HAND—or does it—T. K. JOHNSON and BILL BLAND singing the kind of music we all like to hear and while we are on the subject we wish W. R. O’NEAL speedy recovery—From reliable sources we learn that the complexion of the city voters is changing each day and that the well known apple cart is due for an upsetting—LOU KIMBALL of the GULF LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY reports business showing a substantial gain over a corresponding time last year—Earl MURRAY has returned from St. Augustine to open and manage JOHN THOMASES Winter Park BABY GRAND theatre after remodeling etc.—The RITZ is scheduled to open next week playing during the week-ends—this is good news to merchants there about—Otis MOTE and Jeweler CRUMP especially joyful—MARTIN ANDERSON asked me to lunch but I had to “bring the ducks.”—STANLEY MAYER manages to keep busy according to his own statement—Commissioner PORTER always smiling—wonderful to be that way—WAYNE GRAY says he is making hay while the sun shines and is working so fast that the combustion started the fire in the ROCK building last week—Doc WALSH of the AVALON Pharmacy believes in inviting folks to trade with him—Now I invite you to let us have the low down for this column next week—don’t be bashful.

Do the best you know, that you may know better.

RENEW YOUR YOUTH IN FLORIDA

on and off the avenue

The woman whose taste in clothes leans toward sport clothing and spectator sport will delight in the really distinctive dresses of this type offered by Frances Slater. We could go on and on describing this and that new feature or design so perhaps it is best not to start. We do advise, however, that at your very first opportunity you stop in at this exclusive shop at 20 N. Orange and see the splendid showing of distinctive Slater sport dresses.

Just a short half-mile drive out on the Cheney Highway and you're there—the Flamingo, Central Florida's most popular night club. Excellent music by Cherry Owens and his orchestra, plus the Spanish and American dinners featured and a fine dance floor is your guarantee of a wonderful time. Why not plan for a evening at the Flamingo tonight?

Do you know that when you neglect needed repairs or alterations now that you are actually losing money? Labor and material will not be as low in price as they are today. Call Jack Stevens, general contractor, at 4870 or write him at Route 1, Box 97 B. Have him figure on the work you wish done and have Mr. Stevens do it now before costs go up further.

The woman who knows just what her own individual style should be is lucky indeed. If you are undecided, let Mrs. John Todd, modiste, help you. She will be more than glad to advise and suggest just what your new dresses shall be and to alter or remodel any of the present wardrobe. Stop by at 17½ S. Orange Ave. You will be delighted with Mrs. Todd's art in dress-making.

winter park news rollins college notes

Plans are under way for the annual Rollins Homecoming celebration next Friday, November 10, which will be featured by the football game between Rollins and Erskine College of Due West, S. C., at Tinker Field at 8 o'clock. Fraternities and Sororities are making preparations for Open House Receptions for their returning alumni. The College will be host to all out-of-town alumni at dinner at the College Commons Friday evening, Saturday morning President Holt will speak at an Armistice Day Assembly in Knowles Memorial Chapel, and in the afternoon there will be an Alumni-Undergraduate golf match at the Orlando Country Club. Closing the program for the week-end is the Morning Meditation on Sunday morning at Knowles Memorial Chapel.

Everyone should drink at least six to eight glasses of water each day. Not many of us do and to really encourage yourself and your family to drink more water, we suggest that you try that famously pure Orange City Water. For a trial bottle or a new supply call G. W. Briggs at 5612.

It isn't hard to determine the reason why Perrydell guests linger for just "a little while longer". There is something always to attract the eye. While being served with delicious food you take in the bits of artwork, tapestries and antiques in profusion throughout the rooms. The beautiful landscape scenery visible through the open windows and the excellent service are inviting. Just little details such as a rosette from the Perrydell gardens in every fingerbowl make this the outstanding tea house and gift shop in the state. Visit the Perrydell today—you will go more often, we know.

"What town in Connecticut reminds you of a Biblical character?"

"I don't know."

"Middletown, Connecticut."

"How so?"

"Simple. Just drop the i-d-l-e-t-o-w-n and add o-s-e-s and you have Moses."

She came to her husband in tears and managed to say, "Y-y-your m-mother has in-insulted me."

After calming her, he exclaimed: "How could she? She's in Chicago!"

"Well, she is, but today a letter came to you in her handwriting, so I opened it and—

"Yes," sternly.

"And she wrote this at the b-b-bottom, 'Dear Mary, be sure to show this to George.'"

"Mamma."

"Yes, darling."

"Mamma, daddy isn't like other men, is he Mamma?"

"Why, what do you mean?"

"Because he just got tired waiting for the elevator, and went down the shaft without one."

The train came to a sudden grinding stop, causing the passengers to jump. "What has happened, conductor?" cried a nervous old lady.

"Nothing much. We ran over a cow."

"Why, was it on the track?"

"No, replied the disgusted conductor, "we chas.d it into a barn."

The big game hunter was telling his stay-at-home-wife all about his encounter with the Bengal tiger and how he finally shot it.

"Yes," he wound up, "it was a case of the tiger or me."

"I'm so glad it was the the tiger, dear" she said sweetly; "otherwise we wouldn't have this lovely rug."

The worst thing that happens to you may be the best thing that can happen to you, if you don't let it get the best of you.

that Florida and Florida business is much desired.

If you want a real look "insurance" office, try Andre's. Here you can receive just the advice and care that is needed to correct, improve, or just emphasize the appearance of your hair, skin, and hands. Regular visits to Andre's at very little premium pays big dividends.

The latest addition to the building is the La Lo Products Company, manufacturers of effective destroyers of Roaches, Ants, Rats, Mice, etc. LeRoy Hennessy heads the organization which was formerly located at 541 W. entral. L. R. Tucker associated with the La Lo organization is specializing in whole extermination of pests.

If you have to stumble over ants and roaches drop by 6 Mayer Arcade and arrange for a demonstration in your home.

Sport and Recreation News

VOLLEYBALL

The Volleyball season will get under way Monday, November 6th at the City Auditorium and all those interested in this sport are invited to be on hand any time after 7:30.

It is planned to organize different classes in this sport and a special group for men over 35 years of age will be started.

It is expected that there will be 20 or 30 teams organized in this sport and games will be played on Monday and Wednesday nights.

DIAMONDBALL PARTY

The annual diamondball party will be held Thursday, November 9th at Dubsread Country Club at 7:00 P. M.

All members of the class A League and officials will be guests of the Orlando Athletic Association at this party and any person who has played on a diamondball team or who is interested in diamondball is welcome to come. The admission for those not on the class A team will be 50 cents per person and Ed. Newell, who has charge of the arrangements, and Slim Hoffman, who has charge of the program and the eats, promises a good time.

A regular old fashion German dinner will be served and an excellent entertainment is planned for the evening.

TENNIS

The finals of the Wilson Shoe Co., Men's Tennis Tournament Doubles will be played Sunday, November 12th at Exposition Park.

Guernsey and Bartlett who are the present city champions will defend their title against Hickey & Ross or Wilson & Henry.

ORLANDO COUNTRY CLUB—Eighteen-hole golf course (par 70), tennis, clear water bathing, attractive, commodious club-house. The rendezvous of the social set. Only one and a half miles from the center of the downtown district.

GENERAL ECONOMIC CONDITIONS

will be ably presented by a national executive from Washington, D. C., Maurice R. Reddy, assistant national director of disaster relief. A R. C., at Tuesday's membership luncheon meeting, Greater Orlando Chamber of Commerce, November 7, at 12:15 P. M.

This topic will be covered from the perspective of the Washington, D. C. headquarters, and is of vital interest to everyone at this particular time, when events, emerging daily from chaotic months past seem filled with conflicting portent.

The announcement comes from Oscar A. Boone, chairman Orange County Chapter, A. R. C., through whose efforts this outstanding speaker is obtained.

CONTRIBUTION TO SCIENCE!

It has been discovered by the Smithsonian Institution, United States National Museum, Washington, D. C., that Orange County is the original type locality of a particular species of deer. For this reason the Chamber of Commerce has been requested to advise local hunters that if they will donate skulls of Orange County deer to the Smithsonian Institution for scientific study it will be greatly appreciated, and a representative of the Institution will arrive in Orlando some time in December to attend transportation of the specimens to Washington.

At Angebilt hotel, next week, the United Drug Company will hold a four-day convention, November 7 to 10, with all the attendant celebration, including banquet and dance.

Louis LaFontessee is chairman of arrangements, and Rexall drug stores throughout the State will be represented.
