Students will need to be enrolled in classes to have library privileges during the summer.

All books should be returned by the end of the Spring semester to avoid overdue fines that will accrue over the Summer.

Stop by the Circulation Desk if you have any questions about Summer policies or Call 407.823.2580.

Self-Service Check Out Station

You can "check yourself out" at the new Self-Check Library Station located across from the main circulation desk, just at the entrance into Infusion. The self-check unit is a library terminal that allows you to check out books, VHS tapes, or other General Collection items yourself!

The terminal has the ability to print or email a receipt for items checked out. The receipt includes the due date for the items, as well as, a listing of items you placed on hold, any overdue items, or any money you owe the library (for overdue or lost materials).

So... check it out!

Book Due Date Reminder

Don't forget to return or renew those library books by the due date! To help you remember, the library has begun sending courtesy notices as reminders for books or other library items that will be due back to the library soon. If you have items checked out from the library, you will be receiving email reminders 3 - 5 days before the items are due. For UCF students the email reminders are sent to your Knight's Email (<https://www.secure.net.ucf.edu/knightmail>).
