this that and the other—

"What a man" MILLIGAN is the talk of the town. It is reported that it is all three social secretaries can do to book his appointments beginning one month hence—the date the REPORTER STAR that all his bones will be healed—CAMERON SHIPP and BILL STORY of the Winter Garden Journal are dodging inhibition according to their last week's paper with a very vivid departure from accepted journalistic layout—DR. LEMAN has moved his offices back to the WYOMING HOTEL which reminds us that DEWITT MILLER is up to his ears in work again—Since the DUBSDREAD COUNTRY CLUB issued their new and attractive folder JACK BRANHAM prexy at the ORLANDO COUNTRY CLUB is getting ideas in the same direction—C. C. COMMANDER, head man of the Florida Citrus Exchange, is a frequent visitor to these parts lately. Let's not relinquish our plea for Exchange headquarters. This should be a major project of the GREATER ORLANDO CHAMBER until it is accomplished—T. K. JOHNSON doing some nice work and we all wish him God speed in his endeavors—CRAWFORD BICKFORD, County Chamber Secretary, in the midst of his annual membership round-up. His next thoughts will be on the Central Florida Exposition which reminds us is duck soup for COL. R. M. SHEARER—Congratulations to JANE WASHBURN and BILL CANTRELL, these two capable writers will keep the nation well-informed of the activities in Orlando this season—Many an office has suffered from the rigors of the cold in the last week and everywhere you go you are saluted with a handkerchief—BILL LANIER City Comptroller, bids a meeting interest payments in New York City—Cashier CAPEHART of the Florida Bank greets everyone with a fond "How do you do?" But there are too many of us who do not "do so well" upon leaving—Welcome to Orlando, ROY WHITING, you have some shoes to fill for GEORGE DAVIS of the Home Supply Organization—J. W. FITZGERALD back home with JOE McCORMICK, out scouting for new lumber business—Which reminds us that SARAH McCORMICK JONES is now recuperating from an appendectomy—BURT SMITH and C. M. McLENNAN have just issued a most attractive and enlightening symposium of their FLORIDA FARM & GROVE which now boasts of over 65,000 circulation—and while we are speaking of circulation we must remind you that the GREETER reaches the "cream of the crop" of Orlando and Winter Park and affords the advertiser privileged entry to the better homes and offices. We could rave on forever but JESSIE ALBEE of the Typesetting Company is hollering for copy and we never keep a lady waiting.

ORLANDO COUNTRY CLUB—Eighteen-hole golf course (par 70), tennis, clear water bathing, attractive, commodious clubhouse. The rendezvous of the social set. Only one and a half miles from the center of the downtown district.

on and off the avenue

Would you like to know the really individual gown shop of Orlando? Frances Slater at 22 N. Orange Avenue is the answer. Just a casual visit to this smart shop is an education in itself. Here you can find just what the well dressed women of Orlando will wear because Frances Slater is always just ahead of the styles. Evening gowns, wraps, and sport clothes are always featured.

Have you taken our oft-mentioned suggestion of driving out to the Flamingo for a real evening of enjoyment? If you have, you know what those who have not have missed. Good music by Cherry Owen's and his orchestra, excellent dance floor, tempting Spanish or American style dinners—everything for a perfect evening. Just a short pleasant drive one-half mile out on the Cheney Highway.

We'll wager these cold winds have brought to light the fact that your house could be made warmer by just a little repairing or altering. Why not call Jack Stevens, general contractor, and have his figures and suggestions. You may reach him by calling 5870 or drop him a line at Route 1, Box 97 B.

Do you know that there isn't anything in the dressmaking line that Mrs. John Todd cannot do? She is simply marvelous when it comes to altering or remodeling, and the results achieved with yard material, of your choice, is beyond description. Why not call on Mrs. Todd today at 17½ S. Orange Ave? She will be more than glad to help you and you'll find her suggestions to be just what you had in mind.

The Perrydell, Orlando's most attractive tea house and gift shop located at 22 E. Gore, is a beauty spot that out-of-town visitors should not fail to enjoy. Visitors are cordially greeted by Mrs. Perry or Miss Randall. Here, while waiting just a very short time for your order, you may take in the bits of interesting surroundings which include paintings, antique furniture, draperies and odd gift novelties. Everything is maintained to make your stay and dinner a pleasant one, and one that you will long remember.

Pete The Tailor, at 36 W. Central is the place to go for really fine tailored clothing. You'll be surprised at the astonishingly low cost, too. Exclusive French dry cleaning and dyeing is also done here. Remember, dial 6101 when next you have need for a super tailoring shop.

Try Something Classical—Musician (after much pressing)—“Well, all right, since you insist. What shall I play?”

Host—“Anything you like. It is only to annoy the neighbors.”

winter park news rollins college notes

The Art Gallery at Rollins College is open every afternoon until five o'clock from Monday through Friday, regularly, and there will be several exhibitions before the Christmas vacation. In addition to the work of members of the Art faculty, several paintings have been borrowed, among them two water colors by F. Hopkinson Smith, the noted author, engineer and painter, which have been loaned to the Studio by President Hamilton Holt.

Herman F. Siewert's Organ Vespers programs for Tuesday, November 21, will include numbers from Bach, Kinder, Strovinski and Chaminade. These programs begin at 5:30 p. m. at Knowles Memorial Chapel, and are open to the public.

The Rollins College football team will meet a strong eleven from Lenoir Rhyne College from Hickory, N. C., Thursday night, November 23, at Tinker Field. For years Lenoir Rhyne has been highly respected in North Carolina football circles and the team brings with it a long established reputation of playing high-grade football.

A Problem—It is stated that a young actress in Hollywood “is seeking to insure for 20,000 lbs. the 182 freckles which adorn her face.” 109 lbs. apiece seems a good price for what some people have considered a disfigurement. And if Freckle No. 137 were to disappear?

FREE TICKETS TO BEACHAM THEATRE

Best wishes are extended by the Greeter to the following friends and readers who are celebrating their birthday. A telephone call, a note of congratulations, a visit or a little gift will make the day happier for them.

To add to the birthday, the Greeter and the Beacham theatre invite each of these to attend the current picture at the BEACHAM, as the guest of the Greeter and the theatre. Those whose names are listed below, by properly identifying themselves, may get a special birthday ticket to the Beacham.

TO OUR READERS

The mission of this publication is to acquaint the busy man or woman with what is happening in Orlando and Winter Park.

He Paid—The young man had gone to the bazaar, but was determined not to spend anything.

Fair Seller: "What about this cigarette case?"

Young Man: "I don't smoke."

"This pen-wiper?"

"I never write."

"A packet of sweets?"

"I don't eat sweets."

"Then what about this tablet of soap?"

The young man bought it!

Kentucky Nature Story—A colonel of our acquaintance says the Arizona man was frightened to death by seeing on a trail a rattlesnake which another man also saw was a weakling, and that he has survived seeing his bedchamber rattlesnake with horns, when nobody else could see them.

Big Mobilization.—The manager of a touring theatrical company wired to the proprietor of the theatre in a small town where his company was due to appear:

"Would like to hold rehearsal next Monday afternoon at three. Have your stage manager, carpenter, property man, electrician and all stage hands present at that hour.

Four hours later he received the following reply: "He'll be there."

in case you didn't know

Regular and correct attention to your hair is all that it needs to achieve that well-groomed look so much desired by all. Plan now to visit Andre's each week or every two weeks and have this super attention given to your hair, face, and hands.

Ruth Davis has been rearranging her shop—to take care of increased business. Lots of busy hands can be seen working on lovely new materials that lucky women in Orlando will soon be wearing as stunning dresses. Better have your new holiday dresses made here and come early before the rush—we know Mrs. Davis will be busy.

Late comers among newspaper representatives are still arriving at Advertising headquarters daily.

Might Exercise the Goldfish—"But I couldn't give you enough work to keep you occupied."

"Missus, you'd be surprised wot a little it takes to keep me occupied."

VOLLEYBALL

Regular teams in volleyball will get under way this week at the City Auditorium and it is planned to have class A and B League to play two nights a week playing Monday and Wednesdays.

Those that wish to get in these games are urged to be out on these nights at 7:30 or call C. L. Varner at 6522.

TENNIS

Several Round Robin Tournaments have been started for the local tennis players. The class A players play every Tuesday and Thursday at 4:00 while the class B players play on Saturday 2:00.

On Sunday, November 19th the leading tennis players of the city will travel to Daytona Beach to play some exhibitions at the newly organized Ormand Shore Tennis Club.

Those that will go to Ormand Beach are Frank Guernsey, Jr., Barbe Bartlett, C. L. Varner and Charles Hartridge.

The Orlando Tennis team will play a match with the Florida University team at Florida Saturday morning November 25th as part of the celebration for home coming.

The Orlando team has played at Home Coming for the past 6 years and the local team had the edge over the Florida Varsity for the past three years. Those who will make up the local team will be Frank Guernsey, Jr., C. W. Hickey, C. L. Varner, Glen Wilson, and either Dr. Ross, Charles Hartridge or Mercer Henry.

Plans are going forward for the exhibition matches to be played by Bill Tilden and his troupe in Orlando starting on December 2nd.

Tilden will have some of the leading professionals of the world with him and he will play 10 exhibitions in Orlando, playing 3 Saturdays and Sundays and Tuesday and Thursday nights of the two weeks that he is here.

The Orlando Coliseum has been secured for the night matches and in case it rains on Saturday and Sunday those matches will also be played at the Coliseum.

Orlando is the only place in the State that Tilden is planning to play outside of Jacksonville and it is expected that the tennis players and fans in the state will be on hand to witness these matches.

FULL FISTIC CARD MONDAY NIGHT

The main bout Monday night at the Coliseum, as announced by Promoter Turner Scott, will feature Rufus Miles of Charlotte N. C. who is in Orlando for the winter. Miles, weighing 147, is the welterweight champion of North and South Carolina and the only boy that ever knocked out Wilbur Stokes. Miles will face Johnny Miller of Sarasota who also weighs 147. Miller's record reads 69 fights with only 11 lost.

The semi-finals will feature Johnny Dean of Philadelphia vs. Rufus Lynch and two other good bouts.

It All Depends—A very small boy was trying to lead a St. Bernard dog up the road.

"Where are you going to take the dog, my little man?" inquired a passerby.

"I'm—I'm—going to see where he wants to go first," said the boy.
