HIGH SCHOOL DRIBBLE

(Editor's note)—By way of explanation we might say that this the first specimen of High School Dribble which will be facts pertinent and impertinent upon the shining and lesser lights of the High School set. This should be a very interesting column to the high school crowd, their mothers, fathers, sisters, brothers, aunts, uncles, cousins, ad infinitum, and will be edited each week by BOB HILL, one of the most enterprising of the high school crowd.)

MR. MATHEWS bright and cheery as usual—DICK WOODBERRY, manager of the football team, is now going in for hunting. He always eats his game before leaving the woods, however—Football players wandering around aimlessly, they haven't much to do nowadays—MR. BOONE in a hurry—BOHUNK YOUNG, stellar football man, likes the ladies—ZACK CREWS with a smile and joke—MR. SHAW, sponsor of the Orange & White, wants someone to help him. The P. T. A. is down on him because of an article in the O. & W. about Go-To-School night—GEORGE HOLTSLOW wants to be called Kelly, its his middle name—the LAMBDA, unofficial, unorganized frat, are thinking of making a Lambda Lodge for hunting—JACK BRUNDAGE denies going with the women. Says its his cousin—COACH GREENE resting after a strenuous season—CARLETON WILCOX taking attendance in Boys' Study Hall—Inseparable: CHARLIE CUMMINS and his motorcycle—BERT HUMPHRIES and EMILY BECKETT—MARY WILSON, FRANCES MOSS, BETTY BRYAN and LOUISE HITCH are being initiated into PHI ALPHA KAPPA—more victims for the adolescent blood lust—FAY FLANNAGAN is a new face around school. We hope she will continue to decorate—MYER SIGAL limping. Walking too strenuous?—ZACK CREWS is a new GREETER convert. He says, "I'll take anything that's free"—CLARENCE ROGERS was elected Captain of the football team and BERT HUMPHRIES, alternate Captain. Congratulations, boys.

Have you said your prayers, Dickie?"

"Yes, Mummie. I prayed for you and Daddie, but not for Uncle Reg, because I heard Daddie say he was past praying for!"

on and off the avenue

You have heard that the important evening dress this season is dark, made of rich material and molded to the body. But light or dark, your gown will be distinctive if purchased at the exclusive Frances Slater shop, 20 N. Orange Ave. Plan now to buy your new Christmas gown at Slater's. The many offerings are replete with new style details that will please and delight. Stop in today and see these distinctive Slater dresses.

Central Florida is indeed fortunate in having a new rendezvous for those who find delight in dining and dancing. The Fern Park Dance & Garden Club on the Sanford Highway has just recently opened and offers all that could be desired for a perfect evening of enjoyment. Dinner reservations may be made by calling phone 1218-M and there is dancing each and every evening to the popular music of the Seminole Sereaders, who have been engaged for the season. A pleasant drive on Route 17, midway between Orlando and Sanford, drive out tonight or some night soon. You'll go often, we know.

Building superintendents and housewives, too, will be glad to know that here in Orlando, we have a business that specializes in cleaning supplies and janitor equipment. The Florida Specialties Co., 428 S. Hughey, are headquarters for janitor supplies and none but the best is offered. Phone 9249 for a representative or better still call at this progressive business house.

When everything else fails, when where-to-go and what-to-do really presents itself as a problem to you and your friends, the Flamingo is the only solution. One-half mile east on the Cheney Highway and you're there. Here dining and dancing is really a pleasure amid congenial crowds. Drive out real soon and dance to Cherry Owens excellent orchestra.

For any repairing, reroofing, or altering we suggest and recommend that you call Jack Stevens, general contractor, and secure his estimate. His figures are very reasonable and you will find his suggestions more than helpful. And you can be sure that Mr. Stevens work will be reliable. Either phone 5870 or write to Route 1 Box 97B.

Vim, vigor and vitality—not many of us, always possess these three v's but all of us can. And here's how—go to 248 S. Orange Ave. and have a sulphur vapor-bath or a Dr. Kruse Swedish Massage. We'll wager that you'll feel entirely like another person full of pep. Poor circulation is greatly aided and your general disposition improved.

Do you know that there are many ways that an old dress can be made to appear almost entirely new? Just a new yoke, perhaps, or new sleeves or a collar, but then Mrs. John Todd can suggest and plan just what you have in mind and her suggestions always are a delight. See Mrs. Todd at 17½ S. Orange today. She will make your old dresses new.

SENSATIONAL FAN DANCE FEATURED AT WHISPERING HILLS

The dance that has swept the nation, the biggest sensation of the year—the Fan Dance—is a stellar attraction at the smart Whispering Hills Club near Titusville. Miss Love's interpretation of this beautiful and spectacular dance is the outstanding attraction in Florida this season. This smart club is convenient to every town in this section of the state, and we suggest you drive to Whispering Hills tonight. Dance to the music of Jimmie Heavener and his orchestra, comprised of eight instrumentalists direct from the exclusive Lake Placid, New York. Whispering Hills offers both a la carte and table d'hôte service but features special dinners.

Be Prepared

On rainy days, when the lecturer waxes unusually dull, we sit and chuckle quietly to ourselves over the story of a certain Florida freshman. We shall call him Oscar. Oscar was being rushed by a certain fraternity. The brothers had him cornered in the living room, and were giving him the old pep talk. Finally it was decided that Oscar was just the man the house needed, so the president approached him. "Oscar, would you like to go upstairs. . . ?" Oscar, who religiously lived up to his Boy Scout motto, blushed prettily, and answered, "No, thanks—I attended to that before I came."
