Cruel, Cruel Shock—A girl of this day may not faint at hearing a risque story, or at the sight of a mouse, but we reckon the sight of a sink full of dishes to be washed would make her keel over in the good old-fashioned style.

Saying It With Bubbles—"I was quite upset when Jack kissed me."

"Oh, I say! You'd better been kissed before."

"Yes, but never in a canoe."

Or Try Head Cheese—"Yes, I know fish is brain food, but I don't care so much for fish. Hain't there some other brain food?"

"Well, there's noodle soup."

MUNICIPAL AIRPORT—Two miles from the business district of Orlando, on the shores of Lake Underhill, offering land and water for alighting. East on Washington, Central or South street.

ORLANDO COUNTRY CLUB—Eighteen-hole golf course (par 70), tennis, clear water bathing, attractive, commodious club-house. The rendezvous of the social set. Only one and a half miles from the center of the downtown district.

ROCK SPRINGS—True to its name. Located in Kelly Park, a natural beauty spot of 300 acres, the gift of Dr. Howard A. Kelly, of Baltimore, to the Orange County Park System. Six miles north of Apopka.

DUBSDREAD COUNTRY CLUB—With its sporty 18-hole golf course, is conceded to be one of the finest course within the State.

SANLANDO SPRINGS — PALM SPRINGS — Two clear, sulphur springs with an even temperature around 70 degrees F. the year round. At Sanlando there is an ideal country club-house and golf links mid lakes, and pine covered hills. Near Altamonte, on Orlando-Sanford Highway.

SANITARIUM DRIVE—Just off North Orange on Tollins Avenue. You will enjoy a drive through the campus of the Florida Sanitarium. Its beauty is enriched by the tall mossy pines which overshadow the lake front vista. Many visitors enjoy this retreat and have always found themselves welcome.

Now that the New Year is upon us again and we start with resolutions, why not resolve right now to visit Andre's at least every two weeks? If 1934 doesn't prove to be a better and brighter year—we'll miss our guess. At any rate being carefully groomed as to hair, skin, and hands certainly helps your disposition.

The newspapers we spoke of last week are still coming in—lots of write-ups in northern papers about our Christmas celebration with Santa Claus parade and the tree in Lake Eola.

You can tell Bill Wrigley's walking down the hall—he's always in a hurry.

Ruth Davis seems to be more than busy, at her dress shop.

We notice W. K. Price has removed the curtains—and now you can really see inside his establishment from the outside.

Frank Hastings, of the Orlando Citizen, another one who always seems to be rushing someplace.

WHAT'S WHAT—A GUIDE—WHERE TO GO—WHAT TO SEE

on and off the avenue

If you really want an evening gown that will simply bespeak "1934" for that New Year's Eve party, don't fail to see the offerings of the Frances Slater Shop, in the San Juan Bldg. In this smart and exclusive shop, you are sure to find just the type of gown or wrap that suits you individually and it will be so distinctive and chic that your New Year cannot help but start off right!

Haven't you thoroughly enjoyed the music of Russel Scholes via radio from the Flamingo? For real enjoyment and pleasure, drive out to the Flamingo and dance on that wonderfully smooth floor to this excellent music. And of course you know about the delicious Spanish dinners served at this popular Central Florida night club. Incidentally, if you haven't quite decided, why not phone the Flamingo for reservations for that party on New Year's Eve?

Better have the old bus tuned up and start the new year off on all four and we can recommend no better shop than that of F. S. Dildine, a real automobile expert. He is located at 59 N. Garland St., or you can phone 6253.

You will be interested in Booth's Gift Shop, newest and most novel shop in Orlando, located at 9 E. Pine St. Here you will find your favorite line of cosmetics plus a personal attention so necessary in such intimate and practical purchases. Both Mr. and Mrs. Herrick Booth invite you to drop in and browse around.

While you are out driving looking over the various decorated trees, do not fail to drop by the Perrydell and see their tree trimmed with crystals. Perrydell would be different! And incidentally, why bother with Christmas dinner at home? Give the whole family a real treat and have a Christmas dinner at the Perrydell.

We've seen some lovely picture framing here lately that was all the work of the Hassler Frame Shop. It really is surprising how all-important the frame is to any picture, and of course workmanship enters into this, too. For all your frame needs, see Hassler at 235 Boone St., the cost is quite reasonable.

HIGH SCHOOL DRIBBLE

The printer made a mistake last week. He had BUSTER KEENE'S name instead of GUY ALLEN'S. We all know that Buster is an Omega, not a Z. K. He also had JACK DASHER instead of JUANITA DASHER. . . Smart man! We have seen the following old Grads: MERLE McELROY, BOB CALDWELL, LOU FERRAN, and NORMAN K. BROWNE. Greetings, folks! . . . HENRY CLAIBORNE had a hay ride and weiner roast Friday nite. All the Lambdas were there but KELLY HOLTSCLOW. . . Yours truly went stag. . . There is some talk of Sophomore Valentine day party at which all the children will take off their recently acquired silk stockings, high heels, and long trousers and go as their age dictates. . . Yours truly is downhearted, he has dropped in his work considerably. . . New Year's Resolutions—HARRY BOWER could resolve to get the Sacred Trinity for the Seniors (play, prom and annual) or die in the attempt. . . MR. MOORE could resolve to turn out a crack basketball team . . . and yours truly could resolve to pass a subject or two next time. . . DOT BAKER driving around town . . . LEVI McNOBB hinting desperately "I wanta be a Z. K." . . . OTTO ZEMPKE was at the Z. K. meeting Monday night. . . BETTY BRYAN and DOT BAKER very helpful with dope for this column. Gracias . . . WALLY HAYMAN laid up with a bad eye . . . a Thanksgiving hunting casualty . . . MISS McMAKIN doesn't like Fan Dancers. She doesn't believe they're educational.

Life's Darkest Moment—News Photographer (lining up children for a picture at the Transit Valley County Club) to small boy! "Smile nicely at this little girl over here."

Small Boy: "Aw heck, that's my sister."

A farmer became the father of twins, and on hearing the news he was so delighted that he hurried to the nearest telegraph office and sent this telegram to his sister-in-law:

Twins today. More tomorrow."

Eric was careless about his personal effects. When mother went upstairs and saw clothing scattered about on chair and floor, she gently inquired: "Who didn't hang up his clothes when he went to bed?"

A muffled voice from under the covers murmured, "Adam."

VISITORS—SEE SILVER SPRINGS

A trip to Florida is incomplete without visiting Silver Springs, Florida's wonder spot, where great chrysal caverns lay beneath clear spring water.

It is truly a temple of nature under a water fairyland and can be seen from glass bottomed boats.

An interesting legend has been woven around the bridal chamber in the spring. An endless chamber is seen beneath the water and it is here that two disappointed lovers were said to have gone to their death because they couldn't be together on earth.

Other interesting features of the springs are the mammoth rock ledge, the great cavern, reception hall, ladies' parlor, devil's kitchen, valley of a thousand boiling geysers, blue grotto, the decorated Christmas trees, the prehistoric boat, turtle meadow, Garden of Eden, the sunken gardens, Indian cave, fisherman's paradise and volcanic basin.

"Do you know your wife is going about telling everybody that you can't keep her in clothes?"

"That's nothing, I bought her a home and I can't keep her in that either!"
