PRISM: Political & Rights Issues & Social Movements

Interested in leftist political writings? Then be sure to check out PRISM, an online collection of pamphlets published by socialist and communist groups from the late 1800's through the late 20th century. The collection is the result of a collaborative effort between UCF and Florida Atlantic University to digitize over 1,000 leftist pamphlets held in their Special Collections departments. The pamphlets cover issues such as workers' rights, class struggle, civil rights, and Marxist economics, with many of them authored by such figures as Josef Stalin, Karl Marx, and Fidel Castro.

To view the collection, go to <http://palmm.fcla.edu/prism> and click "Browse the Collection."

UCF Branch and Regional Campus Libraries

While searching the Library Catalog, you may have noticed that many of our books are located in the library at the Rosen College of Hospitality Management. Did you know you can have books sent from Rosen to the Main Campus Library? Instead of driving across town, just put in a request through the Interlibrary Loan website, at <http://library.ucf.edu/ILL>, and you will be notified when the book is available for you to pick up at the circulation desk in the main campus library. You can also place an ILL request for materials located in any of the regional campus libraries.
