A. H.
Dear Loving wife All my Love and Good wishes Rememb--red, by these thou may knowe I have this day sent to William Gardner to hold these into Staffordshire from him the next week if he can, thou be so minded or if he should not if thou can gett by some other way it may be well if could com with thee for Relations there with thee if it be -so I am it may be R. B. might com with you, as for Bays Rememb them till I am, C as for those pill boxes I would have them by ~~to~~ John of good, but I cannot well advise thee yet for him what sort he would have or how much Markett but I know not whether to trouble thee till from the sorts are these

20	first	fray	can	be	had
20	about	16	pend
10	at	12
20	at	10	pend
20	at	10	pend
10	first	pillow

if any of these should fall to be a great admin with thou may buy of sell them to till from - 0 is to have all 50 sh with Markett should have had ten of them those ten sh of 15:9 is to be paid for money how ever be not troubled at it I shall shift them of thy if thou have not sent by the sum of the Collision Thomas Bond paid at Lancaster which thou may find in thy latter end of the double Book, I have lately taken something of a friend of purged me this day I have been ill in my fund--ament & pained with winds, I have counted with w. G. to day C. so also we have gone over of stirrers & C. & inall if thou have an opportunity to have any money return it it be to G. Vallow of 50th now it on with Mark C. he will say it on thy advise I hope will remember me to W. G. & his Mother & self, for at present possibly very Loving Husband Ja. Harrison B. P. who should have been I. C. is here his Love is to thee
