ORANGE MEMORIAL HOSPITAL
SCHOOL OF NURSING
ORLANDO, FLORIDA

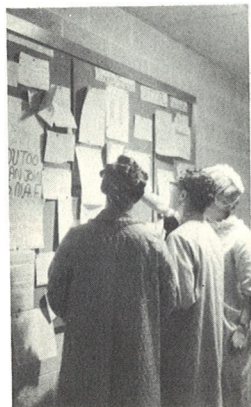

In years to come we will recall this school and the memory picture will be colored in shades of white and near wedgewood blue, the colors of the uniform that is finished with one part pride and one part starch. We are the population of a world known uniquely to the Student Nurses of Orange Memorial Hospital; a world of classes and the breaks between, the work on the hospital units, our patients, the dormitory life and the heated discussion question of academic curiosity or questions sometime even of practical value . . . or more likely, on questions of dates.

DEDICATION

To my family . . .

Who have given — and given — and given.

You are my veterans who have also lasted thru the campaign. You are the ones who also know that it has not been easy. You are the ones who have listened and cared and encouraged. You are the ones who have often made sacrifices. If I have gained a degree of maturity and independence, I have also learned that I can depend on you.

It can be only a token gift but, this book is ours. I dedicate it to you . . . MY FAMILY.

HOSPITAL AUXILIARY

The hospital Auxiliary, better known to us as the "Pink Ladies", performs services in all areas of the hospital. These women dressed in pink uniforms are found in x-ray, emergency room, wheeling the hospitality cart from room to room supplying patients with candy, books, and other articles. If you ever visit the tumor clinic you will find one of these ladies busily helping our doctors.

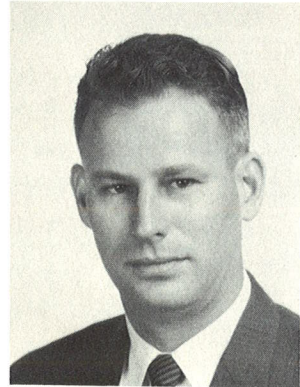

There is much that could be said for the Pink Ladies who give their time to help others but that would take more than one page of this book.

To you who have been so kind to us . . . THANK YOU.

"I don't think this bus will ever get to New Orleans."

"I'm going to have to take up all of my hems."

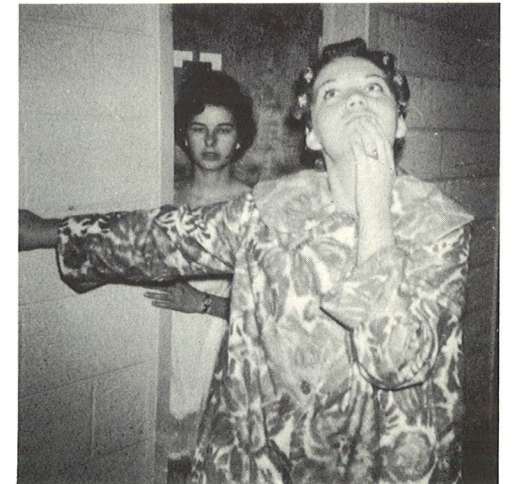

"Why didn't you clean up the room, Frye?"

Too much book work.

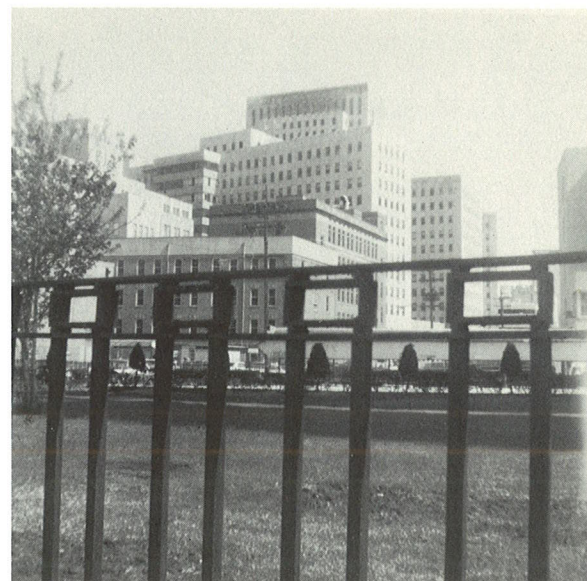

"Don't hit me!"

"I wish she would answer the intercom."

"Carl is the most wonderful boy."

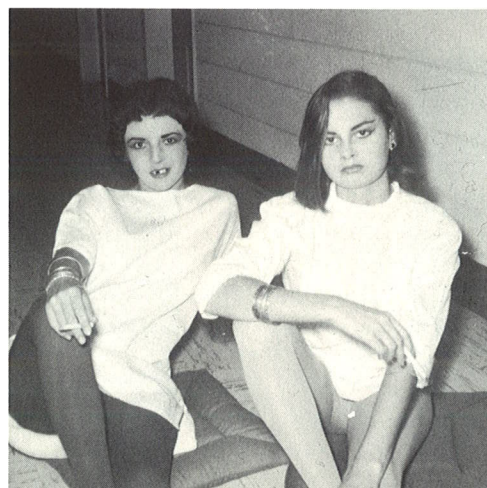

THE BIG "C"

"Two inches below the knee?"
