Dear

Began y^e 1st mo at Litchfield

In the unpowrable love of love wth has joynd us together thou art very near unto me & in the same I dearly love thee, & in the remembrance of thee at this time I am very much refreshed, hereby thou may know.
I am very well & have good health, for wth wth the other favors at this time I am very thankful to the god of my life & my earnest desires are for thy well being, & for my own, I am ~~now~~ ^{glad} my dear love wth father's & mother's is to E. L. if she be wth you & so friends, I would have thee to order for: Clarke to send to the: Jones of Litchfield for, & of Curran & send a bag for them & send both his bag to: Cam wth the last Curran put it down in G. Day books sent back, & would have thee to buy a few buttons of G. first button man to: Comer to G. town of G. & some ordinary silver but G. but a few & send them to the: life but if it be to: thou cannot get any conveniently send those pieces of grove G. and in G. Comer I mean some of the: of them, but I think it may be well to send some at soon as can be conveniently for thee want some there & I hope some be sent since I came from home I have ~~now~~ ^{soon} A letter from R. Longworth wth came from him G.
16th ^{the} ~~mo~~ ^{mo} I was then at Amsterdam & was intending to day for Lanborough & so to Danick, I came to London this day G. 9th day at evening we rid very rapidly all our journey & had ^{had} little well while upon travel but the weather was commonly rained when we were riding or in the night but it has been very bad in some places under foot yesterday yesterday we came to market street & there stayed all night & rained so all fore noon G. was I cannot out from there until after ^{noon} made us come into the city but this evening but I am very well & my horse as carryd me well, wth is the substance at present only I have love as before & that I am true in the same as soon as thou can conveniently send my fa. R. p word of my welfare & tell fa. J. H. G. since I came to town I have spoke wth B.

& he has ~~the~~ E. Edwards money but he intends to order H. Lou as he says to pay him, therefore I would have him advise me wth I hope will be of first after this comes to hand where I may take more money if B. will not pay me this finisht & I have all London
