deare friends in that love which sea and land cannot separate us one from another and flourish forth at this time unto you and in the stormes of my fathers loves I doably salute you, in which I believe you will find me at this time which unites our hearts to the Lord and one unto an other in the inseparable bond of everlasting peace which the god of heaven hath bound us up together and as we never leave all the powers of darkness can neither break our peace but in the stormes of our lasting love we can embrace one another though separated as our wardly, & the good of life that is blessed for our, in which all the promises are yea and amen for our & my souls and all that is with us magnifies the god of my salvation for the only and all things is full his glory and his majesty is our all in the hearts of his servants who are given up to obey him his power and presence is with them to bear up their hearts through all trials and tribulations what God our & my dear brother and sisters in the heavenly Relation my life is bound up with you all who are faith full to the Lord, my soul often sings praises to the Lord, in the Remembrances of the times and seasons which we have enjoyed in the power and presence of the Lord blessed be his name for our God all dear friends dwell in the love of the Lords power which warms our hearts and keeps all in a living order to the glory of his greater name, God with my love to all dear friends as if I did name, I am verily well our way bless be the god of my life my heart is full towards you but I am in haste to go to freedom and to amster and then to return to England I desire a love line from you direct it to Stephen & Elizabeth children will love our Jam your obedient friend R.

I have been thinking of you very much lately and wondering how you are getting on.
 I hope you are well and happy.
 I have been very busy lately but I have managed to find some time to write you a few lines.
