Dear friends you have often borne in my Remembrance since I saw your fares, and I have writen 3. or 4. times to you since I went from England and I writ to you since I came down into the Low Countries about a mo: ago, I was then going into fress Land and ambon, where I have had good famines, and I desired to a had a few lines from you, which I have not had as yet, I desired in my last to hear from you, and orderd how you might direct it to fress Swigg. at Gallisteter, it may be it did misfarie well Dear friends my desire is to hear from you, for my Love in the Low Dutch often come throue mee to wards you, in abundance more then my tongue or pen can expresse, O the largenes of the Low off ever gods we knowe one another in his blessed truth, O the times and seasons of Refreshments, which hath come from the hand of the Low, by Refreshment of ever felices, glory and honor and everlasting Renowne be given to his name for ever, I have formerly given you amount in short of my travels, in these Countrees, the Lords power and grace fents hath been and is my support, and hath carried mee throue all and over all Deficiencies, and his name and truth spreads a broad and many are inquiring the way to fion, and the Lords day is founded in these partes and many are allvamed, and the Lord is with is servants who goes forth in his name and in his power, his presents is enjoyed, which is more then borne wine and oyle, blessed be his name for ever, who is my Reward, and not mine only but also all the faith full, for nowe Dear friends my Love is to you all, and the god of my life be with you all, and blesse you all, in his heavenly Love and life and good and power, that is ever blessed for ever, for Dear friends I hope to be in England in 2. or 3. weekes time (if the Lord will if winds serve) ~~Let me have a line or two from you direct it to ...~~ god with my Love to all friends, ~~and inquire after ...~~ my Love is to them and you all, I have well
