Dearlly be loved in the Lords blessed fruits the love of god in my heart flows forth at this time unto thee and in this love I dearlly salute thee I have Retained a few lines from thy hand and in the Reading of them I was Refreshed for I had longer to hear from you I had again upon my spirit ion running thy dear wife what I had a faith hope that it would be well with her as I do Remember about the time of her Deliverance was my service well I have of much and of hope in the breath of life I have often breathed to the god of heaven for you and it runs through me at this time the Lord make you fruitfull and multiply to the glory and Renown of his name for our faith my friends I have not a line from my dear friend James Harrison and his dear wife but I have by thy the are well which is that I do desire my love is to them the may be kind it I should be glad to see a few from his hand I should be to all friends I am but lately landed I hope to be at London in a little time in haste I bid you all fare well

thy friend and bro.
