London y<sup>e</sup> 9 y<sup>e</sup> first moth. 1648 my dear and well be loved friend in the Lords blessed truth whom I do only afford my low flaves often unto the in that which is of me and eternall and never changeth and in this low and life I salute thee with thy dear wife son and daughter, and all thy family my low in the Lord is to thee all with all dear friends by this thou may understand I have retained thy letter and was verie glad to of your well being and the increase of truth in these reports as also I could give thee a large amount of the prosperity in other reports of the world blessed be Lord god for our kind new deals things have are well as concerning truth I heere to write a gaine y<sup>e</sup>ard long and give thee a further amount I am now in last y<sup>e</sup>ast it going I remain thy friend in truth according to measure
