Plans Made To Enlarge Slavia Lutheran Church

SLAVIA—The St. Luke's Lutheran Church of Slavia will be enlarged. The contract for additions and alterations was awarded by the Church to W. A. McCree, Inc., of Orlando, for the sum of $64,293.00. Pastor Stephen M. Tuhy, Chairman of the Building Committee, signed the contract for St. Luke's Church. The architect is James Gamble Rogers II, of Winter Park. The estimated construction time is 150 days.

Construction will begin the latter part of this week, it was reported. The Building Committee consists of: A. Duda Jr., Ferdinand Duda, George Jaquelin Sr., Hugo Weber, Joseph Hvizdak, David Earle, Joe L. Mikler Jr., E. L. Bellhorn, and Pastor Tuhy, chairman. Joseph Hvizdak will serve as public relations representative.

The decision to let the contract was made Sunday afternoon at the Regular Quarterly Meeting of St. Luke's Congregation. The contract was signed Tuesday afternoon in the office of Gamble Rogers, in Winter Park.

Cub Scouts Visit Local Boat Works

The Cub Scouts of Den 9, Pack 34 made an inspection trip to the Sanford Boat Works this week.

Archie Smith showed the cubs the dry dock where they watched several of the boats come in and saw the new trailer on pontoons.

The group of Cub Scouts went aboard the "Miss Hope" after which they learned to splice a rope and tie a knot. The group then enjoyed refreshments.

Cub Scouts making the trip were Thomas Palmer, Pepper Smith, Jim and Tom McLain, Johnny Clark, and Charles Stein. The group was accompanied by the den mother, Mrs. Gloria Smith and Mrs. Elaine Clark, assistant den mother. The next meeting of the den will be the last Tuesday in July.
