

1678-06-11

Roger Longworth, Phineas Pemberton, June 11, 1678

Roger Longworth

PRINT Identifier: 15816

Find similar works at: <https://stars.library.ucf.edu/printmigrationnetwork-pemberton>
University of Central Florida Libraries <http://library.ucf.edu>

This Correspondence is brought to you for free and open access by the Quaker Correspondence at STARS. It has been accepted for inclusion in Pemberton Correspondence by an authorized administrator of STARS. For more information, please contact STARS@ucf.edu.

Citation

Roger Longworth, London, England, to Phineas Pemberton, Bolton, Lancashire, England, 1678-06-11, vol. 1, pg. 82, Pemberton Family Papers, 1641-1880, 0484A, Historical Society of Pennsylvania, Philadelphia, PRINT, 15816, <https://stars.library.ucf.edu/printmigrationnetwork-pemberton/63/>.

This Correspondence is brought to you for free and open access by the Quaker Correspondence at STARS. It has been accepted for inclusion in Pemberton Correspondence by an authorized administrator of STARS. For more information, please contact STARS@ucf.edu.

London. y. i. et. y. 4. mo 1648

Dear friend in that blessed love and life which the Lord hath made known unto us, and manifested in our hearts, where by we are greatly refreshed and comforted in the Lord god of heaven and earth and one in another, and oh that blessed day may never be forgotten, but that all of us may imitate the love with which we are loved, in obedience to the Requirings of his holy spirit, and because the Lord will multiply his mercies and blessings upon us, and for we shall grow up in the good Christ Jesus over all our enemies who would oppose us in the way the Lord hath called us into, for in the everlasting good of life and power of gods that floweth unto us at this time, I dearly salute thee, with thy dear wife and mother, and all faithful friends my love is to them all, as if I did never them, I do intend the Lord will to get out of the city to morrow, with with yardley, I hope to be at Boulton in two weekes god willing James Harrison is not yett dead, as it were, for hoping to see your faces I rest and bid thee farewell in the Lord

Rodger Longworth

Ben: whitthead and his wife Remembers
their love to you

Roger Longworth
London

4 mo. 1678.

to

Phineas Pemberton
Boulton.

[The body of the letter is written in cursive and is extremely faded, making the text illegible. The ink is light brown and the paper is aged and stained.]