Phinches I have sent before by the way of which I send but I forgot to tell you for 20 lbs of tobacco the man I knows not before thou knowest his name has lived now but I must have always sent me would still be happy for he needs it not as before to be shut with it I bid last this daye fall on thee for for here sent how would be for daye thou no more but my love to you all I am in such a way as I was not this 20 I therefore not left to go to Africa for it is like I may come daye in the after noon for no no more at present it came to be left out not much now tobacco of which I have seen many of these you already sent be no more the 18 daye mo 76
