The Enclosed to Tho Langhorn [Thomas Langhorn] and James Read haveing [having] Com'n [come in] to hand I Entreate [entreat] deliver the one is my Cuntry man [countryman] the other never wronged me the third is for your self [yourself] were it not for the sake of the governer [governor] from whom I belve [believe] it is, I Shold [should] not be so Carefull [careful] of it for you are one of those that have unjustly wounded me but god will wound your rough & [and] heavy scalps in due time vengenc [vengeance] is gods [god's] he will repay thy soure [sour] face thy [your] demure Countenanc [countenance] thy [your] saint like looks thy [your] heavy hand may be discovered in there [their] due time for my self [myself] I scorn your reproaces [reproaches] and am Invulnerable by such & [and] the worst wished you is amendmt [amendment]

[Phineas Pemberton's response is directly after the above]

I returned no answer looking upon it A distracted blast only to let thee [you] see how he shews [shows] his teeth agt [against] ^me^ meerly [merely] on Imagination wth out [without] any Cause for both in publique [public] and private [strikethrough] I have shewed [shown] respect to him for his parts sake while he kept wth in [within] any limits of
