Technology

Computers
/services/computers-technology

Check the library website to see which of the almost 300 computers are currently available. Microsoft Office, Adobe Acrobat, Notepad++, and more are loaded on the computers; a full list of software is on the website. Logging into the computers is easy; just use your NID.

Don't know your NID?
Visit mynid.ucf.edu

Technology for Check Out
/bit.ly/UCFLibraryTech

Students can check out iPads, Blu-ray players, laptops, Dell Tablets, headphones, cameras, and more. Note that technology availability varies by location. To see a full list of technology available for checkout, visit us online.

Accessible Resources
/bit.ly/UCFLibraryAccessibility

We have wheelchair accessible workstations and study rooms, JAWS with large print keyboard, MAGic and other assistive software, video phones, KIC Scanners and more!

Print/Copy/Scan
/services/print-copy-scan

Use your UCF ID card to print your homework or make copies of your notes. You can also scan documents and email or save them to your flash drive.

Help - Ask Us
/ask

The library is here to help you out when you get stuck. And there are so many ways to get that help!

- Chat
- Call - 866-271-7589
- Text - 407-378-3767
- Email - AskALibrarian@ucf.edu
- In person - Service desks in all libraries.

For more detailed questions, visit us at the Research & Information Desk on the 2nd floor. The LibTECH Desk on the 3rd floor assists with wifi set up and other technical questions. Both are located in the John C. Hitt Library.

Your Librarian
/subject/all

You know who your professor is but do you know who your librarian is? Each discipline taught at UCF has a librarian assigned to assist students with their research. Visit our website to look up YOUR librarian today!

Study Rooms
/services/study-rooms

Go online and reserve a study room up to seven days in advance. Equipment varies by room so look at the details to ensure you get what you need.

How-to Videos
/http://youtube.com/ucflibraries

Check out the Libraries' YouTube channel to find videos detailing how to find peer reviewed journals, use Interlibrary Loan, renew your books and much more! Don't see a video you'd like? Let us know. We'd love to hear from you!

Books

We have millions of books and ebooks to choose from, including those needed to write that paper, popular best sellers, and more. Renewing all your books is easy too. Just go to library.ucf.edu/my-account and sign in.

Articles and Databases
/find/articles

Need peer reviewed articles? No problem. Many articles are available online. Visit our website to learn how to find articles and how to request the ones we don't have.

Interlibrary Loan
/bit.ly/UCFLibraryILL

Can't find the book or article that you're looking for? Submit a request to ILL so they can get it for you from a partner library.

Research Guides
/http://guides.ucf.edu

Research Guides are second only to librarians as a great place to start your research. They can point you in the direction of the best databases for your topic or recommend print sources.

Videos/Media
/find/videos-media

Browse through the Libraries' extensive collection of films offered on DVD or streaming formats. Feature films and educational films are available to support coursework or just when you need to take a break.
Quick Library Tips

Your UCF ID card is also your library card.

When you walk into the library, you are already on the second floor.

Most services and resources are available at all library locations but please call ahead to ensure availability of your needed resource or service.

The 21st Century Library
The John C. Hitt Library Building Improvement project is coming! Construction begins fall 2015 on the Automated Retrieval Center, a building designed to house and retrieve most of the print collection. For project updates, follow UCF Library on Facebook and Twitter!
