Dear An

London: 13th of 1th mo: 79²

And Loving wife my I dare love in gods holy truth is unto thee Ph: ph and all y^e rest y^e love & give in y^e truth y^e god hath manye sould in them, I dare heare by those thou may know y^e I got well to London on y^e 3rd day last, to y^e people meeting, I have bene at severall publick meetings of I had a stormy windy journey but was am well throu y^e love & goodnes of y^e lord, D: I was pretty well last night but could not well stay longer in y^e City, I cast it wth other ways, god is gon out this day & intends toward willehire, and may spend som tim in y^e Countrey, som ag^{ain} to y^e daily meeting the love is to thee you all & friends there I shoud I ways, as for market I can give little account of as yett only this day I have sold Nat: Bland a park of wth hand the I speak to holland to gett me those ^{thin time} an^{ny} thou hath forme or may have ^{some} that park of pillows at Susan norris, I park of other stonny, y^e wth cloth & of wth Gatharings indeed all y^e there is, & if thou can gett a park of 8⁰ or about 9⁰ or within 6⁰ or 9⁰ I shoud think of those Barmill ians, I was about 20 or more sould of John Smithy of Breadshaw gate they are stiched at 3⁰ p^{er} pair, I bad him I think 15⁰ I shoud might have had them I question not if they be not gon see if he will sell thee have them, but decided not y^e I shoud about but be in som hope to gett them way before I shoud owld for them Remember me to Rich Brooke & tell him I cannot see much of a market yett god cannot much forreig him but shall see further and if I shoud any, will be sure to sell him know, & if he had any I shall doo my best to put them of, & as well as I can think of Eliz: Good sheefe, y^e King is gon to now market thing are still & quiet, my Landlady love is to you with many more, & white head is well if you see ben: I shoud well him, & remember me to him hee is not many Countrey friends in town, for y^e I must send a helping hand, well my I dare I do not remember much more that needfull at present but that I am thy vary loving Husband.

Ja: Harrison

if Jam: pass som to thee tell him I have gott no more y^e shoud, but have bene about Jam I do not for gett him, wth I shoud him 5⁰ & money
