BROKEN GLASS

Broken glass, Shattered Dreams, minute pieces of a whole

Scattered to the four winds stepped on crushed
while beneath the earth Tossed and dropped into fragments of a mirror reflecting distorted images of human figures and objects bouncing darkness and light

Fragments of love, Cultural Misfits, Crumbled love ones

Once belonging to a jar, family bottle, window or figurine
Each shape so unique quite different yet, the same form rising from grains of sand molded from flaming heat gentle hands.

Dissonant Chords, Rays of colored Light, Erupted Volcanoes

Emotional Kaleidoscopes vexed by carelessness lack of knowledge Filled with a disconsolateness causing Mother Earth to Quake from within annihilating, destroying with Notes of discord stretching to the outer limits

Broken glass, Diverse Emotions of Energy, Agitated Souls

Search the universe to belong cut the skin to inch in lay wait in the grass, dirt, street wanting with a strong desire to live they gather when they can craving, fighting so one never forgets reflections of human life.
